- changes in laws or government regulation affecting our business;
- the impact of pending or any future litigation or regulatory actions; and
- the other important factors described in the "Risk Factors" section of this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q and in Part I. Item 1A "Risk Factors" in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2025 (the "Annual Report").

Moreover, we operate in a very competitive and rapidly changing environment. New risks emerge from time to time. It is not possible for our management to predict all risks, nor can we assess the effect of all factors on our business or the extent to which any factor, or combination of factors, may cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in any forward-looking statements we may make. Accordingly, forward-looking statements should not be relied upon as representing our views as of any subsequent date, and we do not undertake any obligation to update forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances after the date they were made, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, except as may be required under applicable securities laws. 1. DESCRIPTION OF BUSINESS AND ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Description of Business

Opendoor Technologies Inc. (the "Company" and "Opendoor"), including its consolidated subsidiaries and certain variable interest entities ("VIEs"), is a leading e-commerce platform for residential real estate transactions. By leveraging its data-driven pricing models and integrated local operations, Opendoor is working towards a future that enables sellers and buyers of residential real estate to experience a simple and certain transaction that is dramatically improved from the traditional process. The Company was incorporated in Delaware on December 30, 2013.

The Company completed a business combination with Social Capital Hedosophia Holdings Corp. II ("SCH"), a Cayman Islands exempted company formed for the purpose of effecting a merger, share exchange, asset acquisition, share purchase, reorganization or similar business combination with one or more businesses (the "Business Combination"). The Business Combination, pursuant to which Opendoor Labs Inc. became a wholly owned subsidiary of SCH and SCH changed its name from "Social Capital Hedosophia Holdings Corp. II" to "Opendoor Technologies Inc.", was completed on December 18, 2020, and was accounted for as a reverse recapitalization, in accordance with GAAP.

Basis of Presentation and Principles of Consolidation

The accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared pursuant to generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America ("GAAP"). The condensed consolidated financial statements as of September 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025 and for the three- and nine-month periods ended September 30, 2026 and 2025 include the accounts of Opendoor, its wholly owned subsidiaries and VIEs where the Company is the primary beneficiary. The accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements reflect all adjustments which are, in the opinion of management, necessary for a fair statement of the results for the interim periods presented. Intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated in the condensed consolidated financial statements herein.

The accompanying interim condensed consolidated financial statements and these related notes should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and related notes included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2025 (the "Annual Report") filed on February 19, 2026.

Repurchase and Retirement of Common Stock

In August 2026, the Company repurchased 45,272,209 shares of its common stock in privately-negotiated transactions through a financial intermediary at the last reported sale price of the common stock on August 12, 2026, which was $3.49 per share, for approximately $158 million, excluding transaction costs. The Company elected to recognize the excess of the repurchase price over par value entirely as a reduction of additional paid-in capital, provided that additional paid-in capital remains positive. The Company also incurred $3 million in direct and incremental transaction costs to repurchase the shares, which are recorded as a reduction of additional paid-in capital. See "Note 9. Shareholders' Equity" for further discussion regarding the Company's repurchase activity.

At-The-Market Equity Offering

During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2025, the Company issued and sold an aggregate of 21,587,667 shares at a weighted-average price of $9.26 per share, under the Company's at-the-market equity offering sales agreement (the "ATM Agreement") for total cash proceeds, after commissions, of approximately $198 million, and Net Proceeds, as defined in the ATM Agreement, of approximately $195 million. As of September 30, 2025, there were no shares available for issuance under the ATM agreement.

Private Investment in Public Equity Offerings

In September 2025, the Company closed certain private investment in public equity ("PIPE") offerings and entered into purchase agreements with accredited investors, including two related party investors whose investments accounted for the majority of the aggregate $41 million in gross cash proceeds, resulting in the issuance of an aggregate of 6,165,412 shares of common stock. The shares were issued in a private placement under Section 4(a)(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Regulation D thereunder, and were not registered under the Securities Act of 1933.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that have a material impact on the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Significant estimates, assumptions and judgments made by management include, among others, share-based awards and inventory valuation adjustments. Management believes that the estimates and judgments upon which management relies are reasonable based upon information available to management at the time that these estimates and judgments are made. To the extent there are material differences between these estimates, assumptions and judgments and actual results, the carrying values of the Company's assets and liabilities and the results of operations will be affected. The health of the residential housing market and interest rate environment have introduced additional uncertainty with respect to judgments, estimates, and assumptions, which may materially impact the estimates previously listed, among others.

Significant Risks and Uncertainties

The Company operates in a dynamic industry and, accordingly, can be affected by a variety of factors. For example, the Company believes that changes in any of the following factors could have a significant negative effect on the Company in terms of its future financial position, results of operations or cash flows: its rates of revenue growth; its ability to manage inventory; engagement and usage of its products; the effectiveness of its investment of resources to pursue strategies; competition in its market; the stability of the residential real estate market; the impact of interest rate changes on demand for and pricing of its products and on the cost of capital; its ability to leverage artificial intelligence ("AI") to drive operational efficiency; impacts to its business from political and regulatory activity, including trade policies and potential increased tariffs; changes in technology, products, markets or services by the Company or its competitors; its ability to maintain or establish relationships with listings and data providers; its ability to obtain or maintain licenses and permits to support its current and future businesses; actual or anticipated changes to its products and services; changes in government regulation affecting its business; the outcomes of legal proceedings; natural disasters and catastrophic events, such as pandemics or epidemics; scaling and adaptation of existing technology and network infrastructure; its management of its growth; its ability to attract and retain qualified employees and key personnel; its ability to successfully integrate and realize the benefits of its past or future strategic acquisitions or investments; the protection of customers' information and other privacy concerns; the protection of its brand and intellectual property; and intellectual property infringement and other claims, among other things.

Concentrations of Credit Risk

Financial instruments, which potentially subject the Company to concentrations of credit risk, consist primarily of cash and cash equivalents, and restricted cash. The Company places cash and cash equivalents with major financial institutions, which management assesses to be of high credit quality, in order to limit the Company's exposure to potential losses.

Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

The Company's significant accounting policies are discussed in "Part II – Item 8 – Financial Statements and Supplementary Data – Note 1. Description of Business and Accounting Policies" in the Annual Report. There have been no changes to these significant accounting policies for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2026, except as noted below.

Impairment of Long-Lived Assets

Long-lived assets, such as property and equipment and definite-lived intangible assets, among other long-lived assets, are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. If circumstances require a long-lived asset or asset group be tested for possible impairment, the Company first compares undiscounted cash flows expected to be generated by that asset or asset group to its carrying amount. If the carrying amount of the long-lived asset or asset group is not recoverable on an undiscounted cash flow basis, an impairment loss is recognized to the extent the carrying amount of the underlying asset exceeds its fair value. The impairment loss recognized for the periods presented is primarily related to abandonment of certain internally developed software projects. The impairment loss recognized during the periods presented is as follows (in millions):

	Three Months Ended September 30,		Nine Months Ended September 30,
	2026	2025	2026	2025
Technology and development	$ 1	$ 2	5	5
Total impairment loss	$ 1	$ 2	$ 5	$ 5

Capped Calls

In August 2026, the Company issued 0.00% convertible senior notes due 2030 (the "2030-B Notes"). In connection with the issuance, the Company purchased certain capped calls (the "2030-B Capped Calls"), which it expects to reduce potential dilution from conversion of the 2030-B Notes, subject to a cap. The capped calls were determined to be freestanding financial instruments that meet the criteria for classification in equity; as such, the capped calls were recorded as a reduction of additional paid-in capital within shareholders' equity and will not be subsequently remeasured.

Recently Issued Accounting Standards

Recently Adopted Accounting Standards

For the nine months ended September 30, 2026, the Company did not adopt any material new accounting standards.

Recently Issued Accounting Standards Not Yet Adopted

In October 2023, the FASB issued ASU 2023-06, which is intended to clarify or improve disclosure and presentation requirements of a variety of topics. It will allow users to more easily compare entities subject to the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission's ("SEC") existing disclosures with those entities that were not previously subject to the requirements and align the requirements in the FASB accounting standard codification with the SEC's regulations. The effective date for each amendment will be the date on which the SEC's removal of that related disclosure from Regulation S-X or Regulation S-K becomes effective, or if the SEC has not removed the applicable disclosure requirement by June 30, 2027, the amendment will not be effective for any entity. Early adoption is prohibited. The Company is currently assessing the impact on the Company's disclosures.

In November 2024, the FASB issued ASU 2024-03, Reporting Comprehensive Income—Expense Disaggregation Disclosures, which is intended to improve the disclosures about a public business entity's expenses and provide detailed information about the types of expenses in commonly presented expense captions. The new guidance is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2026, and interim periods within fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2027, and early adoption is permitted. The Company is currently assessing the impact on the Company's condensed consolidated financial statements and disclosures.

In September 2025, the FASB issued ASU 2025-06, Intangibles – Goodwill and Other – Internal-Use Software, to modernize the outdated guidance for accounting for software costs by aligning the accounting with how software is developed today. This guidance is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2027 and interim periods within those fiscal years. Early adoption is permitted. The amendments in ASU 2025-06 should be applied either prospectively, retrospectively, or utilizing a modified transition approach. The Company is currently assessing the impact on the Company's condensed consolidated financial statements and disclosures.

In September 2025, the FASB issued ASU 2025-07. This update clarifies the application of derivative accounting to certain contracts and refines the guidance for share-based noncash consideration received from customers. Specifically, ASU 2025-07 introduces a scope exception for contracts that are not exchange-traded and whose underlying is tied to operations or activities specific to one party. It also clarifies that share-based noncash consideration from a customer should initially be accounted for under Topic 606 until the right to receive or retain such consideration becomes unconditional, at which point financial instruments guidance may apply. The effective date for the standard is for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2026 and interim periods within those fiscal years. Early adoption is permitted. The amendments in ASU 2025-07 should be applied either prospectively or by utilizing a modified retrospective approach. The Company is currently assessing the impact on the Company's condensed consolidated financial statements and disclosures.

In December 2025, the FASB issued ASU 2025-11, Interim Reporting (Topic 270): Narrow-Scope Improvements. This update clarifies interim disclosure requirements and centralizes such requirements within Topic 270. Among other changes, ASU 2025-11 introduces a disclosure principle requiring entities to provide information about significant events or changes since the end of the last annual reporting period that have a material impact, clarifies when duplicative annual disclosures may be omitted from interim reports, and aligns interim reporting requirements with applicable SEC guidance for registrants. This guidance is effective for interim reporting periods within annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2027. Early adoption is permitted. The amendments in ASU 2025-11 should be applied prospectively. The Company is currently assessing the impact on the Company's condensed consolidated financial statements and disclosures.

In December 2025, the FASB issued ASU 2025-12, Codification Improvements. This update addresses shareholder suggestions on the Accounting Standards Codification and makes other incremental improvements to U.S. GAAP. The amendments make codification updates to a broad range of topics arising from technical corrections, unintended application of the codification, clarifications, and other minor improvements. This guidance is effective for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2026 and interim reporting periods within those annual periods. Early adoption is permitted and may be elected on an issue-by-issue basis. The amendments in ASU 2025-12 are to be applied prospectively. The Company is currently assessing the impact on the Company's condensed consolidated financial statements and disclosures.

The amortized cost, gross unrealized gains and losses, and fair value of cash and cash equivalents, as of September 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025, were as follows (in millions):

In May 2026, a subsidiary of the Company entered into a Simple Agreement for Future Equity ("SAFE") with a private company for an aggregate amount of $5 million, which is accounted for as a non-marketable equity security under the measurement alternative. The SAFE converts into preferred equity upon a qualifying financing at a predetermined valuation cap. No losses, whether from impairment or other observable price changes, were recognized in the condensed consolidated statements of operations for both the three and nine months ended September 30, 2026 and 2025 related to non-marketable equity securities held as of those dates.

4. VARIABLE INTEREST ENTITIES

The Company utilizes VIEs in the normal course of business to support the Company's financing needs. The Company determines whether the Company is the primary beneficiary of a VIE at the time it becomes involved with the VIE and reconsiders that conclusion on an on-going basis.

The Company established certain special purpose entities ("SPEs") for the purpose of financing the Company's purchase and renovation of real estate inventory through the issuance of asset-backed debt. The Company is the primary beneficiary of the various VIEs within these financing structures and consolidates these VIEs. The Company is determined to be the primary beneficiary based on its power to direct the activities that most significantly impact the economic outcomes of the SPEs through its role in designing the SPEs and managing the real estate inventory they purchase and sell. The Company has a potentially significant variable interest in the entities based upon the equity interest the Company holds in the VIEs.

The following table summarizes the assets and liabilities related to the VIEs consolidated by the Company as of September 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025 (in millions):

	September 30, 2026	December 31, 2025
Assets
Restricted cash	$ 93	$ 334
Real estate inventory, net	2,552	916
Other[1]	21	7
Total assets	$ 2,666	$ 1,257
Liabilities
Asset-backed debt	$ 2,364	$ 1,120
Other[2]	48	13
Total liabilities	$ 2,412	$ 1,133

(1) Includes escrow receivable and other current assets.

(2) Includes accounts payable and other accrued liabilities and interest payable.

The creditors of the VIEs generally do not have recourse to the Company's general credit solely by virtue of being creditors of the VIEs. However, certain of the financial covenants included in the inventory financing facilities to which the VIEs are party are calculated by reference to Opendoor Labs Inc. and its consolidated subsidiaries' assets and liabilities. As a result, under certain circumstances, this may limit the Company's flexibility to transfer assets from Opendoor subsidiaries to the Parent Company. See "Note 5. Credit Facilities, Long-Term Debt, and Convertible Notes" for further discussion of the recourse obligations of an Opendoor subsidiary with respect to the VIEs.

5. CREDIT FACILITIES, LONG-TERM DEBT, AND CONVERTIBLE NOTES

Asset-backed Debt

The Company utilizes inventory financing facilities consisting of asset-backed senior debt facilities and asset-backed mezzanine term debt facilities to provide financing for the Company's real estate inventory purchases and renovation. These inventory financing facilities are typically secured by some combination of restricted cash, equity in real estate owning subsidiaries and related holding companies, and, for senior facilities, the real estate inventory financed by the relevant facility and/or beneficial interests in such inventory.

Each of the borrowers under the inventory financing facilities is a consolidated subsidiary of Opendoor and a separate legal entity. Neither the assets nor credit of any such borrower subsidiaries are generally available to satisfy the debts and other obligations of any other Opendoor entities. The inventory financing facilities are non-recourse to the Company and are generally non-recourse to Opendoor subsidiaries not party to the relevant facilities, except for limited guarantees provided by an Opendoor subsidiary for certain obligations involving "bad acts" by an Opendoor entity and certain other limited circumstances. These limited guarantees apply only to specified obligations or upon specified triggering events and are not unconditional guarantees of repayment of the inventory financing facilities.

As of September 30, 2026, the Company had total borrowing capacity with respect to its asset-backed debt of $7.5 billion. Borrowing capacity amounts under asset-backed debt as reflected in the table above are in some cases not fully committed and any borrowings above the committed amounts are subject to the applicable lender's discretion. Any amounts repaid for senior term and mezzanine term debt facilities reduce total borrowing capacity as repaid amounts are not available to be reborrowed. As of September 30, 2026, the Company had committed borrowing capacity with respect to the Company's asset-backed debt of $1.6 billion; this committed borrowing capacity is comprised of $572 million for senior revolving credit facilities, $725 million for senior term debt facilities, and $350 million for mezzanine term debt facilities.

Asset-backed Senior Revolving Credit Facilities

The Company classifies the senior revolving credit facilities as current liabilities on the Company's condensed consolidated balance sheets as amounts drawn to acquire and renovate homes are required to be repaid as the related real estate inventory is sold, which the Company expects to occur within 12 months.

The senior revolving credit facilities are typically structured with an initial revolving period of up to 24 months, as may be amended and extended from time to time, during which time amounts can be borrowed, repaid and borrowed again. The borrowing capacity is generally available until the end of the applicable revolving period as reflected in the table above. Outstanding amounts drawn under each senior revolving credit facility are required to be repaid on the facility maturity date or earlier if accelerated due to an event of default or other mandatory repayment event. The final maturity dates and revolving period end dates reflected in the table above are inclusive of any extensions that are at the sole discretion of the Company. These facilities may also have extensions subject to lender discretion that are not reflected in the table above.

Borrowings under the senior revolving credit facilities accrue interest at various floating rates based on a secured overnight financing rate ("SOFR"), plus a margin that varies by facility. The Company may also pay fees on certain unused portions of committed borrowing capacity. The Company's senior revolving credit facility arrangements typically include upfront fees that may be paid at execution of the applicable agreements or be earned at execution and payable over time. These facilities are generally fully prepayable at any time without penalty other than customary breakage costs.

The senior revolving credit facilities have aggregated borrowing bases, which increase or decrease based on the cost and value of the properties financed under a given facility and the time that those properties are in the Company's possession. When the Company resells a home, the proceeds are used to reduce the outstanding balance under the related senior revolving credit facility. The borrowing base for a given facility may be reduced as properties age beyond certain thresholds or the performance of the properties financed under that facility declines, and any borrowing base deficiencies may be satisfied through contributions of additional properties or partial repayment of the facility.

Asset-backed Senior Term Debt Facilities

The Company classifies its senior term debt facilities as current or non-current liabilities on the Company's condensed consolidated balance sheets based on the applicable final maturity date.

The senior term debt facilities are typically structured with an initial withdrawal period up to 60 months, as may be amended and extended from time to time, during which the outstanding principal amounts are generally not required to be repaid when homes financed through those facilities are sold and instead are intended to remain outstanding until final maturity for each facility. Outstanding amounts drawn under each senior term debt facility are required to be repaid on the facility maturity date or earlier if accelerated due to an event of default or other mandatory repayment event. The final maturity dates and withdrawal period end dates reflected in the table above are inclusive of any extensions that are at the sole discretion of the Company. These facilities may also have extensions subject to lender discretion that are not reflected in the table above.

Borrowings under the senior term debt facilities accrue interest at a fixed rate or at a floating rate based on SOFR, plus a margin. The Company's senior term debt facilities may include upfront issuance costs that are capitalized as part of the facilities' respective carrying values. These facilities are fully prepayable at any time but may be subject to certain customary prepayment penalties.

The senior term debt facilities have aggregated property borrowing bases, which increase or decrease based on the cost and value of the properties financed under a given facility, the time those properties are in the Company's possession and the amount of cash collateral pledged by the relevant borrowers. The borrowing base for a given facility may be reduced as properties age or collateral performance declines beyond certain thresholds, and any borrowing base deficiencies may be satisfied through contributions of additional properties, cash or through partial repayment of the facility.

Asset-backed Mezzanine Term Debt Facilities

The Company classifies its mezzanine term debt facilities as current or non-current liabilities on the Company's condensed consolidated balance sheets based on the applicable final maturity date. These facilities are structurally and contractually subordinated to the related asset-backed senior debt facilities.

The mezzanine term debt facilities have been structured with an initial withdrawal period of up to 42 months, as may be amended and extended from time to time, during which the outstanding principal amounts are generally not required to be repaid when homes financed through those facilities are sold and instead are intended to remain outstanding until final maturity. Outstanding amounts drawn under the mezzanine term debt facilities are required to be repaid on the facility maturity date or earlier if accelerated due to an event of default or other mandatory repayment event. The final maturity date and withdrawal period end date reflected in the table above are inclusive of any extensions that are at the sole discretion of the Company. These facilities may also have extensions subject to lender discretion that are not reflected in the table above.

Borrowings under a given mezzanine term debt facility accrue interest at a fixed rate. The Company's mezzanine term debt facilities include upfront issuance costs that are capitalized as part of the facilities' respective carrying values. These facilities are fully prepayable at any time but may be subject to certain prepayment penalties.

The mezzanine term debt facilities have aggregated property borrowing bases, which increase or decrease based on the cost and value of the properties financed under a given facility and time in the Company's possession of those properties and the amount of cash collateral pledged by the relevant borrowers. The borrowing base for a given facility may be reduced as properties age or collateral performance declines beyond certain thresholds, and any borrowing base deficiencies may be satisfied through contributions of additional properties, cash or through partial repayment of the facility.

Covenants

The Company's inventory financing facilities include customary representations and warranties, covenants and events of default. Financed properties are subject to customary eligibility criteria and concentration limits.

The terms of these inventory financing facilities and related financing documents require an Opendoor subsidiary to comply with customary financial covenants, such as maintaining certain levels of liquidity, tangible net worth or leverage (ratio of debt to tangible net worth). Certain of these financial covenants are calculated by reference to Opendoor Labs Inc. and its consolidated subsidiaries' assets and liabilities. As a result, under certain circumstances, this may limit the Company's flexibility to transfer assets from Opendoor subsidiaries to the Parent Company. At September 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025, $305 million and $200 million, respectively, of the Company's net assets were restricted as they reflect minimum net asset requirements at Opendoor Labs Inc. As of September 30, 2026, the Company was in compliance with all financial covenants and no event of default had occurred.

Convertible Senior Notes

In August 2021, the Company issued 0.25% convertible senior notes due 2026 (the "2026 Notes") which matured on August 15, 2026, and were repaid in full in cash. In May 2025, the Company issued 7.00% convertible senior notes due 2030 (the "2030-A Notes"), and in August 2026, the Company issued 0.00% convertible senior notes also due 2030 (the "2030-B Notes"). The 2026 Notes, 2030-A Notes and 2030-B Notes are collectively termed "Convertible Senior Notes". The following tables summarize certain details related to the Convertible Senior Notes (in millions, except interest rates):

2026 Notes

The 2026 Notes matured on August 15, 2026, and the Company paid $135 million to settle the outstanding aggregate principal amount and accrued and unpaid interest. No 2026 Notes were converted prior to maturity, and no gain or loss was recognized on repayment.

2030-A Notes

In May 2025, the Company entered into privately negotiated transactions with certain holders of the 2026 Notes and new investors, pursuant to which the Company issued $325 million aggregate principal amount of 2030-A Notes consisting of (i) $246 million aggregate principal amount of 2030-A Notes issued in exchange for $246 million principal amount of 2026 Notes (the “Debt Exchange") and (ii) $79 million aggregate principal amount of 2030-A Notes issued for cash. Such transactions resulted in gross cash proceeds of $75 million, excluding certain fees and other offering expenses, and represent an issue price of 95%. The Company accounted for the Debt Exchange of the 2026 Notes as a debt extinguishment and recorded $10 million of gain on debt extinguishment, included within the Company’s condensed consolidated statements of operations.

The 2030-A Notes are convertible at the option of the holders of the 2030-A Notes before November 15, 2029 only upon the occurrence of certain events. In addition, the holders of the 2030-A Notes have the right to require the Company to repurchase all or part of their 2030-A Notes (i) if certain corporate events occur that constitute a fundamental change or (ii) for a one-time optional repurchase on May 15, 2028. Beginning on May 22, 2028, the Company has the option to redeem the 2030-A Notes, in whole or in part, upon meeting certain conditions related to the price of the Company’s common stock. The redemption or repurchase price will be paid in cash equal to 100% of the principal amount of the 2030-A Notes to be redeemed or repurchased, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any. Beginning on November 15, 2029, and until the close of business on the second scheduled trading day immediately preceding the maturity date, the 2030-A Notes are convertible at any time at the election of each noteholder. The conversion rate and conversion price are subject to customary adjustments under certain circumstances. In addition, if certain corporate events that constitute a make-whole fundamental change occur, then the conversion rate will, under certain circumstances, be increased for a specified period of time. Upon conversion, the Company may satisfy its obligation by paying cash for the outstanding principal balance, and, a combination of cash and the Company’s common stock, at the Company’s election, for the remaining amount, if any, based on the applicable conversion rate.

The 2030-A Notes become convertible during any calendar quarter if the last reported sale price of the Company’s common stock exceeds 130% of the conversion price for at least 20 of the 30 consecutive trading days ending on, and including, the last trading day of the immediately preceding calendar quarter. This condition was first met during the quarter ended September 30, 2025, and has been met in each subsequent quarter through September 30, 2026. Accordingly, the 2030-A Notes became convertible at the option of the noteholders on October 1, 2025, remain convertible through December 31, 2026, and are classified as a current liability in the condensed consolidated balance sheets as of September 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025.

2030-B Notes

In August 2026, the Company issued $650 million aggregate principal amount of 2030-B Notes in privately negotiated subscription transactions with certain investors. Gross proceeds were $650 million, before placement agent fees and other offering expenses of $11 million.

The 2030-B Notes are senior, unsecured obligations of the Company and mature on August 15, 2030, unless earlier converted, redeemed or repurchased. The 2030-B Notes are convertible at the option of the holders before February 15, 2030, only upon the occurrence of certain events. Beginning on February 15, 2030, and until the close of business on the second scheduled trading day immediately preceding the maturity date, the 2030-B Notes are convertible at any time at the election of each noteholder. In addition, the holders have the right to require the Company to repurchase all or part of their 2030-B Notes if certain corporate events occur that constitute a fundamental change.

Beginning on February 22, 2029, the Company has the option to redeem the 2030-B Notes, in whole or in part, upon meeting certain conditions related to the price of the Company's common stock and certain liquidity conditions, provided that the Company may not redeem fewer than all of the 2030-B Notes unless at least $100 million aggregate principal amount remains outstanding and not called for redemption. The Company may also redeem all, but not less than all, of the 2030-B Notes at any time, including prior to February 22, 2029, if less than $75 million aggregate principal amount remains outstanding and certain liquidity conditions have been satisfied. The redemption or repurchase price will be paid in cash equal to 100% of the principal amount to be redeemed or repurchased, plus accrued and unpaid special interest and additional interest, if any. The conversion rate and conversion price are subject to customary adjustments under certain circumstances. In addition, if certain corporate events that constitute a make-whole fundamental change occur, then the conversion rate will, under certain circumstances, be increased for a specified period, subject to a maximum conversion rate. Upon conversion, the Company may satisfy its obligation by paying or delivering cash, shares of its common stock, or a combination of cash and shares, at the Company's election, and holders may not require settlement in any particular form.

The following table summarizes the interest expense related to the Convertible Senior Notes (in millions):

	Three Months Ended September 30,		Nine Months Ended September 30,
	2026	2025	2026	2025

Total Convertible Senior Notes interest expense	$ 2	$ 8	$ 5	$ 13

Capped Calls

In August 2026, in connection with the issuance of the 2030-B Notes, the Company purchased the 2030-B Capped Calls from certain financial institutions for an aggregate premium of $52 million and incurred approximately $1 million of related transaction costs. The premium and transaction costs were recorded as a reduction of additional paid-in capital. The 2030-B Capped Calls cover, subject to customary adjustments, approximately 138 million shares of the Company's common stock. By entering into the 2030-B Capped Calls, the Company expects to reduce the potential dilution to its common stock (or, in the event of a conversion of the 2030-B Notes settled in cash, to reduce its cash payment obligation) in the event that at the time of conversion of the 2030-B Notes its common stock price exceeds the conversion price. The 2030-B Capped Calls have an initial strike price of $4.7115 per share, which corresponds to the initial conversion price of the 2030-B Notes, and an initial cap price of $6.98 per share, representing a 100% premium over the $3.49 closing price of the Company's common stock on August 12, 2026. The 2030-B Capped Calls were entered into separately from the 2030-B Notes and holders of the 2030-B Notes do not have any rights with respect to the 2030-B Capped Calls.

6. FAIR VALUE DISCLOSURES

The Company uses fair value measurements to record fair value adjustments to certain assets and liabilities and to determine fair value disclosures.

The following is the fair value hierarchy used for assets and liabilities recorded at fair value on a recurring and nonrecurring basis and for estimating fair value for financial instruments not recorded at fair value.

Fair Value Hierarchy

Fair value measurements of assets and liabilities are categorized based on the following hierarchy:

Level 1 — Fair value determined based on quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2 — Fair value determined using significant observable inputs, such as quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities or quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in markets that are not active, inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability, or inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data, by correlation or other means.

Level 3 — Fair value determined using significant unobservable inputs, such as pricing models, discounted cash flows, or similar techniques.

Estimation of Fair Value

The following table summarizes the fair value measurement methodologies, including significant inputs and assumptions, and classification of the Company's assets and liabilities recorded at fair value on a recurring basis.

The repurchase price includes direct and incremental transaction costs incurred to repurchase the shares.

In August 2026, the Company's board of directors authorized the repurchase of shares of the Company's common stock. During the three months ended September 30, 2026, the Company repurchased 45,272,209 shares of its common stock in privately negotiated transactions through a financial intermediary for an aggregate purchase price of $158 million at an average price of $3.49 per share, excluding transaction costs of $3 million with an aggregate $161 million recognized in additional paid-in capital.

On July 28, 2022, the Company entered into a warrant agreement with Zillow, Inc. ("Zillow") in connection with a partnership arrangement that allows for Zillow to purchase up to 6 million shares of common stock that will vest in tranches (each, a "Tranche") upon Zillow providing resale marketing services to the Company. As of September 30, 2026, one Tranche of 300,000 shares of common stock underlying the warrant has vested, with an exercise price of $15 per share, and none have been exercised.

On November 21, 2025, a total of 99,295,146 Warrants were issued and distributed to the holders of record of common stock and 2030-A Notes as of the November 18, 2025 record date. Financial Statements and Supplementary Data – Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements – Note 11. Shareholders' Equity*," in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2025 for additional information regarding the Warrant Dividends.

12. INCOME TAXES

The Company's tax provision and the resulting effective tax rate for interim periods are determined based upon its estimated annual effective tax rate adjusted for the effect of discrete items arising in that quarter.

The Company's provision for income taxes, which consisted of state taxes in the United States and foreign income taxes in Canada and India was nominal and $1 million for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2026, respectively, with an effective tax rate of (0.14)% and (0.09)%, respectively. The Company's provision for income taxes was nominal and $1 million for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2025, respectively, with an effective tax rate of (0.11)% and (0.25)%, respectively. The effective tax rate differs from the U.S. statutory tax rate primarily due to the recording of a full valuation allowance against the net deferred tax assets.

The Company evaluated the positive and negative evidence bearing upon the realizability of its deferred tax assets by jurisdiction. Based on the Company's history of operating losses, including a three-year cumulative loss position, the Company believes that based on the weight of available evidence, it is more likely than not that all of the deferred tax assets in the U.S. will not be realized and recorded a full valuation allowance of its federal and state net deferred tax assets as of September 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025.

In December 2021, the Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development ("OECD") Inclusive Framework on Base Erosion and Profit Shifting released Model Global Anti-Base Erosion rules ("Model Rules") under Pillar Two. The Model Rules set forth the "common approach" for a Global Minimum Tax at 15 percent for multinational enterprises with a turnover of more than 750 million Euros. Certain aspects of Pillar Two were effective January 1, 2024 and other aspects were effective January 1, 2025. Various countries have adopted legislation and other countries are in the process of introducing legislation to implement Pillar Two. On January 5, 2026, the OECD announced changes to the Model Rules to include the "side-by-side" arrangement, which contains simplification measures as well as an exemption for U.S.-parented companies from certain aspects of the Pillar Two regime. The updated Model Rules will need to be enacted into local legislation to become effective. Pillar Two did not have a material impact on the Company's condensed consolidated financial statements as of September 30, 2026. The Company continues to monitor developments and administrative guidance and to evaluate the potential impact of Pillar Two on its condensed consolidated financial statements for future periods.

On July 4, 2025, the One Big Beautiful Bill Act (the "Act") was enacted into law. The Act includes significant changes to the U.S. tax code, including restoration of immediate recognition of domestic research and development expenditures and reinstatement of 100% bonus depreciation for qualifying property. The Company has evaluated the impact of the Act on its condensed consolidated financial statements, including the effects on its deferred tax assets and liabilities and has not identified any material impact on its condensed consolidated financial statements.

13. NET LOSS PER SHARE

Basic net loss per share is computed based on the weighted-average number of shares of common stock outstanding during the period. Diluted net loss per share is computed based on the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding plus the effect of dilutive potential common shares outstanding during the period using the treasury stock method. During the periods when there is a net loss, potentially dilutive common stock equivalents have been excluded from the calculation of diluted net loss per share as their effect is anti-dilutive. No dividends, including preferred dividends, were declared, paid, or accumulated for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2026 or 2025.

The Company uses the two-class method to calculate net loss per share and applies the more dilutive of the two-class method, treasury stock method or if-converted method to calculate diluted net loss per share. Undistributed earnings for each period are allocated to participating securities, based on the contractual participation rights of the security to share in the current earnings as if all current period earnings had been distributed. As there is no contractual obligation for participating securities to share in losses, the Company's basic net loss per share is computed by dividing the net loss attributable to common shareholders by the weighted-average shares of common stock outstanding during periods with undistributed losses.

The following table sets forth the computation of the Company's basic and diluted net loss per share attributable to common shareholders for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2026 and 2025 (in millions, except share amounts which are presented in thousands, and per share amounts):

	Three Months Ended September 30,		Nine Months Ended September 30,

The following securities were not included in the computation of diluted shares outstanding because the effect would be anti-dilutive, or issuance of such shares is contingent upon the satisfaction of certain conditions which were not satisfied by the end of the period (in thousands):

	Three Months Ended September 30,		Nine Months Ended September 30,

(1) Inclusive of the 2030-A Notes and 2030-B Notes. The 2030-B Notes may be settled, at the Company's election, in cash, shares of common stock, or a combination thereof; the shares presented assume full settlement in shares of common stock.

("Mainstay"), a formerly consolidated subsidiary of the Company, that was deconsolidated on July 31, 2024 (the "Deconsolidation"), was $48 million, which is presented in Other assets in the condensed consolidated balance sheets. The investment is recognized as a non-marketable equity security investment under ASC 321, Investments - Equity Securities, and is measured at fair value on a non-recurring basis, with the fair value initially determined as of the transaction date. As of September 30, 2026, there has been no impairment or other observable price changes. As a result of the Company's continued investment in Mainstay, transactions between the Company and Mainstay subsequent to the Deconsolidation are considered to be related-party transactions. Prior to the Deconsolidation, transactions between Mainstay and Opendoor were eliminated upon consolidation.

In connection with the Deconsolidation, the Company entered into a contractual agreement to provide Mainstay with certain transition administrative services for a limited period of time ("Transition Services") and to fulfill certain funding obligations to be paid in the form of Mainstay Series A Preferred Stock at the original Series A Preferred Stock issuance price. In September 2025, the Company received $9 million of Series A Preferred Stock as consideration for the Transition Services and related funding requirements. The Company continued to fund bonuses for certain Mainstay employees, other than Mainstay Management, through November 2025. Subsequent to the Deconsolidation, the Company has no compensation arrangements with the management of Mainstay who are responsible for directing the activities that most significantly impact the economics of Mainstay ("Mainstay Management"). As of the Deconsolidation, outstanding Opendoor RSUs held by Mainstay employees, other than Mainstay Management, were modified so that the service-based vesting requirement will be satisfied as long as the Mainstay employee continues to provide services to Mainstay ("Post Deconsolidation RSUs"). During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2026, zero and 21,307 shares of common stock, respectively, were issued to Mainstay employees for the settlement of RSUs, net of shares withheld for participant taxes. As of June 30, 2026, all RSUs had vested.

In April 2025, the Company entered into an agreement with Mainstay to create Mainstay National Title LLC, which provides title and escrow services to institutional customers. The Company has a 25% interest in and provides certain services to Mainstay National Title LLC. The initial investment is recognized as an equity method investment under ASC 323, Investments – Equity Method and Joint Ventures. As of September 30, 2026, the carrying value of the equity method investment was nominal and is presented in Other assets on the condensed consolidated balance sheets. During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2026, the Company recognized revenue of $3 million and $8 million, respectively. During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2025, the Company recognized revenue of $3 million and $7 million, respectively. This revenue is presented within the condensed consolidated statement of operations related to services provided to Mainstay National Title LLC.

There have been no other material changes to the related party transactions disclosed in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2025. For a full description of those arrangements, see "Part II – Item 8. Financial Statements and Supplementary Data – Note 17. Related Parties" of our Annual Report on Form 10-K.

15. SEGMENT INFORMATION

The Company is managed as a single operating and reportable segment on a consolidated basis, reflecting how the Company's Chief Operating Decision Maker ("CODM") allocates resources and evaluates the Company's financial information. The operating segment is the Company's residential real estate product and service offerings. The Company determined that the Chief Executive Officer is the CODM, given their responsibility for making resource allocation decisions, assessing performance, making strategic operational decisions and managing the organization at a consolidated level.

As the Company is managed as a single operating and reportable segment, the measure of segment profit or loss is consolidated net loss. The CODM utilizes the financial information below in assessing the segment's performance and allocating resources. The measure of segment assets is reported on the Company's condensed consolidated balance sheets as total assets.

The table below highlights the Company's reportable segment's expenses and net loss for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2026 and 2025 (in millions):

Both awards vested nine months after his start date and were expensed over the requisite service period. The CEO make-whole provision adjustment reflects only the expense associated with the cash make-whole award. The expense associated with the restricted stock unit make-whole award is included in the stock-based compensation line item presented separately in the reconciliation above.

(7) Other segment income (expenses) are primarily made up of depreciation and amortization, restructuring, and amortization of stock-based compensation capitalized to internally developed software. 16. BUSINESS ACQUISITIONS

On July 20, 2026, the Company completed the acquisition of asset and equity interests of certain subsidiaries of Doma Technology LLC in exchange for $10 million in cash consideration (the "Acquisition"). The Company entered into the Acquisition to expand its title and escrow services, including the right to participate in Fannie Mae's Title Acceptance Program.

The Acquisition has been accounted for as a business combination under ASC 805, Business Combinations, using the acquisition method of accounting. The Company recognized fair value amounts of assets acquired and liabilities assumed at the acquisition date, primarily related to goodwill of $4 million and intangible assets of $6 million. Intangible assets recognized were related to customer relationships, developed technology, and the Company's right to participate in Fannie Mae's Title Acceptance Program, and have useful lives ranging from 1 to 5 years.

17. COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

Legal Matters

From time to time, the Company may be subject to potential liability relating to the ownership and operations of the Company's properties. Accruals are recorded when the outcome is probable and can be reasonably estimated.

There are various claims and lawsuits arising in the normal course of business pending against the Company, some of which seek damages and other relief which, if granted, may require future cash expenditures. In addition, from time to time the Company receives inquiries and audit requests from various government agencies and fully cooperates with these requests. The Company does not believe that it is reasonably possible that the resolution of these matters would result in any liability that would materially affect the Company's condensed consolidated results of operations or financial condition.

18. RESTRUCTURING

Restructuring costs for ongoing employee benefit arrangements, inclusive of statutory requirements, are recognized in accordance with ASC 712, Compensation - Non-retirement Post-employment Benefits when it becomes probable that an obligation has been incurred and the amount can be reasonably estimated. If applicable, the Company recognizes restructuring costs over the terminated employees' remaining service period. The liabilities for restructuring costs are recognized in Accounts payable and other accrued liabilities on the condensed consolidated balance sheets.

During the quarter ended June 30, 2026, the Company initiated the closure of its Indian subsidiary. The Company recognized $3 million of restructuring expenses related to post-employment benefits for approximately 150 employees, as well as other costs associated with the closure, including $1 million related to the early termination of a lease. Payments for restructuring costs incurred during the quarter ended June 30, 2026 were substantially completed by the third quarter of 2026.

During the nine months ended September 30, 2025, the Company recognized $6 million of restructuring expenses related to post-employment benefits for approximately 125 employees, as well as other cost reduction efforts. Additionally, the Company incurred $4 million of costs related to the early termination of two leases. Payments for restructuring costs incurred during the nine months ended September 30, 2025 were substantially completed by the third quarter of 2025.

As of September 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025, the restructuring liability balance was $1 million and $1 million, respectively.

	September 30, 2026
Balance-December 31, 2025	$ 1
Additions charged to expense	3
Costs paid or otherwise settled	(3)
Balance- September 30, 2026	$ 1

19. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

Subsequent to quarter end, the Company entered into two senior term credit facilities, which have final maturity dates of October 29, 2030 and November 4, 2030, respectively. As a result of these transactions, the Company has an aggregate borrowing capacity of $8.5 billion and fully committed borrowing capacity of $2.1 billion for its senior credit facilities.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations.

The following discussion and analysis provides information that our management believes is relevant to an assessment and understanding of our condensed consolidated results of operations and financial condition. The discussion should be read together with the historical condensed consolidated financial statements and related notes that appear in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q.

This discussion may contain forward-looking statements based upon current expectations that involve risks and uncertainties. Our actual results may differ materially from those anticipated in these forward-looking statements as a result of various factors, including those set forth under "Forward-Looking Statements," "Risk Factors," or in other parts of this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q, and in "Part I - Item 1A. Risk Factors" in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2025 (the "Annual Report").

Overview

Opendoor's mission is to tilt the world in favor of homeowners, by making homeownership simpler, faster, and fairer for everyone. Residential real estate is a trillion-dollar industry underpinned by a process that is complicated, time-consuming, stressful, and offline. Our data-driven pricing models and integrated local operations are modernizing residential real estate by providing a simple, certain, and largely digital way to buy and sell homes. Since our founding, we have completed over 313,000 transactions across the United States, making us one of the largest buyers and sellers of homes in the United States.

Current Housing Environment

The U.S. housing market remains constrained by elevated mortgage rates and persistent affordability challenges. Existing home sales remain at a seasonally adjusted annual rate of around 4 million units, a 30-year low and roughly 20% below the pre-pandemic decade average of approximately 5 million annual sales. As of September 2026, home prices were roughly flat year-over-year. Mortgage rates increased during the third quarter, with the average 30-year fixed mortgage rate rising from the mid-6% range to above 7% by the end of September. Seller-buyer disconnect persists, with delistings (homes withdrawn from the market without selling) reaching their highest average level for any third quarter in Opendoor's operating history.

In response to these market conditions, we maintained a disciplined, data-driven approach to managing our business, dynamically adjusting our pricing strategies to balance growth, margin, and risk. We continued our tailored spread approach, providing stronger offers for higher-quality homes with greater expected resale velocity while maintaining higher spreads for lower-quality homes with elevated risk and slower resale clearance expectations. We believe this approach will continue to increase the likelihood of offer acceptance among higher-quality homes, improve the overall quality mix of homes in our portfolio, and support faster sell-through. In addition, we dynamically adjust list prices to calibrate to market sell-through rates and drive resale clearance. We closely monitor macroeconomic developments and remain agile in our decision-making, enabling us to respond effectively to shifts in interest rates and broader market conditions.

Factors Affecting our Business Performance

Market Penetration

Residential real estate is one of the largest consumer markets in the United States, of which less than 1% of the estimated $1.7 trillion of home value transacted annually is conducted online. Given the fact that we operate in a highly fragmented industry and offer a differentiated value proposition to the traditional offline selling process, we believe there is significant opportunity to expand our market share. By providing a consistent, high-quality and differentiated experience to our customers, we hope to continue to drive positive word-of-mouth awareness and trust in our platform.

Partnership channels with homebuilders, agents, and online real estate platforms are an important source of leads for our business. We have relationships with three of the largest online real estate platforms, Zillow, Realtor.com, and Redfin, which together reach millions of unique monthly visitors and allow home sellers to request an offer directly from Opendoor. In addition to driving incremental acquisitions, we expect these partnerships to build our brand awareness and serve as additional avenues for sellers to learn about the benefits of our products.

A continued source of opportunity is re-engagement with our base of registered sellers, meaning sellers that have received an offer from Opendoor but have not yet sold their home. In the last ten years, we have sent millions of offers and, while not everyone is ready to act when they request an offer, we treat everyone as a potential future seller. We perpetually iterate on our re-engagement strategies and believe that our registered customer base will continue to be an important source of home acquisition volumes.

Geographic Footprint

We continually evaluate opportunities to expand our footprint. At the start of 2025, our products were available in 50 markets across select U.S. states. By the end of 2025, we expanded our reach to serve customers nationwide across the contiguous United States through one or more of our product offerings, including cash and Cash Now, More Later offers.

Adjacent Services

We believe home sellers and buyers value simplicity and certainty. To that end, we are building an online, integrated suite of home services, which currently includes title insurance, escrow services, mortgage and real estate brokerage services.

Our success with title insurance and escrow services helps validate our view that customers prefer an online, integrated experience. In the first quarter of 2026, we launched a mortgage product offering through Opendoor Home Loans LLC, which we believe over time can improve our customer experience and unit economics by integrating mortgage financing directly into our home transaction platform. We will continue to evaluate new ways to improve our end-to-end solution and expect to invest in additional adjacent products and services over time, including through potential strategic transactions, growth opportunities, or partnerships, with the expectation that these adjacent services will continue to improve our unit economics.

Unit Economics

We view Contribution Margin as a key measure of unit economic performance. Contribution Margin is a non-GAAP financial measure. See "—Non-GAAP Financial Measures" for further details and a reconciliation of Contribution Margin to gross margin. Our long-term financial performance depends, in part, on continuing to maintain and expand unit margins through the following initiatives:

- Optimization and enhancements of our pricing engine;
- Platform efficiency improvements through greater use of generative AI, automation and self-service;
- Incremental attach of services, which supplement the transaction margin profile; and
- Leveraging our platform to develop additional offerings, which we expect can increase overall conversion and unlock more capital-light margin.

Inventory Management

Effectively managing our overall inventory position and balancing growth, margin, resale velocity, and risk are critical to our financial performance. Since our inception, we have prioritized investment in our pricing capabilities across our home acquisition processes and our forecasting and resale systems, and expect to continue to do so. As part of our overall risk management framework, we consider both individual market and aggregate portfolio exposures. We prioritize resale speed to reduce market exposure and to support inventory health, and we monitor sell-through rates, holding periods, and portfolio aging, calibrating our list prices to market clearance. We also calibrate the spreads embedded in our offers based on home-specific attributes, including expected resale velocity and risk profile, as well as local market conditions. Spreads are defined as total discount to our home valuation at time of offer less the Opendoor service fee.

Real estate inventory is reviewed for valuation adjustments on a quarterly basis. If the carrying amount for a given home is not expected to be recovered, the home's carrying value is adjusted to its net realizable value and an inventory valuation adjustment is recorded to cost of revenue. Inventory valuation adjustments are not offset by any expected gains and are not reversed or adjusted should the expected net realizable value subsequently increase. We recorded inventory valuation adjustments of $53 million and $76 million during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2026, respectively, and $15 million and $48 million during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2025, respectively. See "Part II – Item 7. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations – Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates – Real Estate Inventory" in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2025.

As one key measure of inventory management performance, we evaluate our portfolio metrics relative to the broader market (as observed on the multiple listing services ("MLS")). One such metric is our percentage of homes "on the market" for greater than 120 days as measured from initial listing date. As of September 30, 2026, such homes represented 18% of our portfolio, compared to 30% for the broader market when filtered for the types of homes we are able to underwrite and acquire based on characteristics such as market, price range, home type, home location, year built and lot size (which we refer to as our "buybox"). This metric fluctuates based on seasonal factors, market dynamics, and our resale strategies.

Inventory Financing

Our business model is working capital intensive and inventory financing is a key enabler of our growth. We primarily rely on our access to asset-backed debt, which consists of asset-backed senior debt facilities and asset-backed mezzanine term debt facilities, to finance our home acquisitions. See "—Liquidity and Capital Resources — Debt and Financing Arrangements."

Seasonality

The residential real estate market is seasonal, with greater demand and home price appreciation from home buyers in the spring and summer, and typically weaker demand and lower home price appreciation in late fall and winter. In general, we expect our financial results and working capital requirements to reflect seasonal variations over time. However, other factors, including growth, market expansion, product innovation, and changes in macroeconomic conditions, such as inflation and interest rate fluctuations, have obscured the impact of seasonality in our historical financials and may continue to do so.

Non-GAAP Financial Measures

In addition to our results of operations below, we report certain financial measures that are not required by, or presented in accordance with, U.S. generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP").

These measures have limitations as analytical tools when assessing our operating performance and should not be considered in isolation or as a substitute for GAAP measures, including gross profit and net loss. We may calculate or present our non-GAAP financial measures differently than other companies who report measures with similar titles and, as a result, the non-GAAP financial measures we report may not be comparable with those of companies in our industry or in other industries.

Adjusted Gross Profit and Contribution Profit

To provide investors with additional information regarding our margins and return on inventory acquired, we have included Adjusted Gross Profit and Contribution Profit, which are non-GAAP financial measures. We believe that Adjusted Gross Profit and Contribution Profit are useful financial measures for investors as they are supplemental measures used by management in evaluating unit level economics and our operating performance. Each of these measures is intended to present the economics related to homes sold during a given period. We do so by including revenue generated from homes sold (and adjacent services) in the period and only the expenses that are directly attributable to such home sales, even if such expenses were recognized in prior periods, and excluding expenses related to homes that remain in inventory as of the end of the period. Contribution Profit provides investors a measure to assess Opendoor's ability to generate returns on homes sold during a reporting period after considering home purchase costs, renovation and repair costs, holding costs and selling costs.

Adjusted Gross Profit and Contribution Profit are supplemental measures of our operating performance and have limitations as analytical tools. For example, these measures include costs that were recorded in prior periods under GAAP and exclude, in connection with homes held in inventory at the end of the period, costs required to be recorded under GAAP in the same period. Accordingly, these measures should not be considered in isolation or as a substitute for analysis of our results as reported under GAAP. We include a reconciliation of these measures to the most directly comparable GAAP financial measure, which is gross profit.

Adjusted Gross Profit / Margin

We calculate Adjusted Gross Profit as gross profit under GAAP adjusted for (1) inventory valuation adjustment in the current period, and (2) inventory valuation adjustment in prior periods. Inventory valuation adjustment in the current period is calculated by adding back the inventory valuation adjustments recorded during the period on homes that remain in inventory at period end. Inventory valuation adjustment in prior periods is calculated by subtracting the inventory valuation adjustments recorded in prior periods on homes sold in the current period. Adjusted Gross Margin is Adjusted Gross Profit as a percentage of revenue.

We view this metric as an important measure of business performance as it captures gross margin performance isolated to homes sold in a given period and provides comparability across reporting periods. Adjusted Gross Profit helps management assess home pricing, service fees and renovation performance for a specific resale cohort.

Contribution Profit / Margin

We calculate Contribution Profit as Adjusted Gross Profit, minus certain costs incurred on homes sold during the current period including: (1) holding costs incurred in the current period, (2) holding costs incurred in prior periods, and (3) direct selling costs. Contribution Margin is Contribution Profit as a percentage of revenue.

We view this metric as an important measure of business performance as it captures the unit level performance isolated to homes sold in a given period and provides comparability across reporting periods. Contribution Profit helps management assess the revenues and certain costs directly attributable to a specific resale cohort.

The following table presents a reconciliation of our Adjusted Gross Profit and Contribution Profit to our gross profit, which is the most directly comparable GAAP measure, for the periods indicated:

(1) Inventory valuation adjustment includes adjustments to record real estate inventory at the lower of its carrying amount or its net realizable value. The sum of the current period and prior period inventory valuation adjustments is referred to as "net inventory valuation adjustments".

(2) Inventory valuation adjustment — Current Period is the inventory valuation adjustments recorded during the period presented associated with homes that remain in inventory at period end.

(3) Inventory valuation adjustment — Prior Periods is the inventory valuation adjustments recorded in prior periods associated with homes that sold in the period presented.

(4) Represents selling costs incurred related to homes sold in the relevant period. This primarily includes broker commissions, external title and escrow-related fees and transfer taxes. Selling costs are included in Sales, marketing and operations on the condensed consolidated statements of operations.

(5) Holding costs primarily include property taxes, insurance, utilities, homeowners association dues and maintenance costs. Holding costs are included in Sales, marketing, and operations on the condensed consolidated statements of operations.

(6) Represents holding costs incurred in the period presented on homes sold in the period presented.

(7) Represents holding costs incurred in prior periods on homes sold in the period presented.

Adjusted Net Loss and Adjusted EBITDA

We also present Adjusted Net Loss and Adjusted EBITDA, which are non-GAAP financial measures that management uses to assess our underlying financial performance. These measures are also commonly used by investors and analysts to compare the underlying performance of companies in our industry. We believe these measures provide investors with meaningful period over period comparisons of our underlying performance, adjusted for certain charges that are non-cash, not directly related to our revenue-generating operations, not aligned to related revenue, or not reflective of ongoing operating results that vary in frequency and amount.

Adjusted Net Loss and Adjusted EBITDA are supplemental measures of our operating performance and have important limitations. For example, these measures exclude the impact of certain costs required to be recorded under GAAP. These measures also include inventory valuation adjustments that were recorded in prior periods under GAAP and exclude, in connection with homes held in inventory at the end of the period, inventory valuation adjustments required to be recorded under GAAP in the same period. These measures could differ substantially from similarly titled measures presented by other companies in our industry or companies in other industries. Accordingly, these measures should not be considered in isolation or as a substitute for analysis of our results as reported under GAAP. We include a reconciliation of these measures to the most directly comparable GAAP financial measure, which is net loss.

Adjusted Net Loss

We calculate Adjusted Net Loss as GAAP net loss adjusted to exclude non-cash expenses of stock-based compensation, equity securities fair value adjustment, intangibles amortization expense, and the amortization of stock-based compensation capitalized to internally developed software ("IDSW"). It excludes expenses that are not directly related to our revenue-generating operations such as restructuring and CEO make-whole provision. It also excludes loss (gain) on extinguishment of debt as these expenses or gains were incurred as a result of decisions made by management to terminate or partially extinguish portions of our outstanding credit facilities or convertible senior notes early; these expenses or gains are not reflective of ongoing operating results and vary in frequency and amount. Adjusted Net Loss also aligns the timing of inventory valuation adjustments recorded under GAAP to the period in which the related revenue is recorded in order to improve the comparability of this measure to our non-GAAP financial measures of unit economics, as described above. Our calculation of Adjusted Net Loss does not currently include the tax effects of the non-GAAP adjustments because our taxes and such tax effects have not been material to date.

Adjusted EBITDA / Margin

We calculate Adjusted EBITDA as Adjusted Net Loss adjusted for depreciation and amortization, property financing and other interest expense, interest income, and income tax expense. Adjusted EBITDA is a supplemental performance measure that our management uses to assess our operating performance and the operating leverage in our business. Adjusted EBITDA Margin is Adjusted EBITDA as a percentage of revenue.

The following table presents a reconciliation of our Adjusted Net Loss and Adjusted EBITDA to our net loss, which is the most directly comparable GAAP measure, for the periods indicated:

(7) In connection with the appointment of the Company's new Chief Executive Officer in September 2025, the Company granted two make-whole awards related to compensation forfeited from his former employer. The awards consisted of (i) a $15 million cash award and (ii) a restricted stock unit award with a grant date value of $15 million. Both awards vested nine months after his start date and were expensed over the requisite service period. The CEO make-whole provision adjustment reflects only the expense associated with the cash make-whole award. The expense associated with the restricted stock unit make-whole award is included in the stock-based compensation line item presented separately in the reconciliation above.

(8) Primarily includes related party services income and sublease income.

(9) Includes interest expense on our asset-backed debt facilities.

(10) Includes (i) amortization of debt issuance costs, loan origination fees, commitment fees, unused fees, and other interest related costs on our asset-backed debt facilities, and (ii) amortization of debt issuance costs and debt discounts and interest expense related to our 0.25% convertible senior notes due 2026 (the "2026 Notes"), 7.00% convertible senior notes due 2030 (the "2030-A Notes") and 0.00% convertible senior notes due 2030 (the "2030-B Notes" and, together with the 2026 Notes and the 2030-A Notes, the "Convertible Senior Notes").

(11) Consists mainly of interest earned on cash, cash equivalents and restricted cash.

Components of Our Results of Operations

Revenue

We generate the majority of our revenue from the sale of homes that we previously acquired from homeowners. In addition, we generate revenue from additional services we provide to both home sellers and buyers, which consists primarily of title insurance, escrow services, and real estate brokerage services.

Home sales revenue from selling residential real estate is recognized when title to and possession of the property has transferred to the buyer and we have no continuing involvement with the property, which is generally the close of escrow. The amount of revenue recognized for each home sale is equal to the sale price of the home net of any concessions.

Cost of Revenue

Cost of revenue includes the property purchase price, acquisition costs, and direct costs to renovate or repair the home. These costs are accumulated in real estate inventory during the property holding period and charged to cost of revenue under the specific identification method when the property is sold. Real estate inventory is reviewed for valuation adjustments at least quarterly. If the carrying amount for a given home is not expected to be recovered, the home's carrying value is adjusted to its net realizable value and an inventory valuation adjustment is recorded to cost of revenue. For homes sold under our Cash Now, More Later product, cost of revenue also includes any remaining sale proceeds remitted to the original seller upon resale, net of our service fee and certain recoverable costs.

Additionally, for revenue other than home sales revenue, cost of revenue consists of any costs incurred in delivering the service, including associated headcount expenses such as salaries, benefits, and stock-based compensation.

Operating Expenses

Sales, Marketing and Operations Expense

Sales, marketing and operations expense consists primarily of broker commissions (paid to the home buyers' real estate agents and third-party listing agents, if applicable), resale closing costs, holding costs related to real estate inventory including property taxes, insurance, utilities, homeowners association dues and maintenance, and expenses associated with product marketing, promotions and brand-building. Sales, marketing and operations expense also includes any headcount expenses in support of sales, marketing, and real estate operations such as salaries, benefits, and stock-based compensation.

General and Administrative Expense

General and administrative expense consists primarily of headcount expenses, including salaries, benefits and stock-based compensation for our executive, finance, human resources, legal and administrative personnel, third-party professional services fees and rent expense.

Technology and Development Expense

Technology and development expense consists primarily of employee-related expenses for product development, design, data analytics and engineering, including salaries, benefits and stock-based compensation, as well as contractor and consultant fees, third-party software and hosting costs, and amortization of internally developed software. We continue to focus our technology and development efforts on enhancing our pricing and valuation algorithms, improving transaction efficiency, and expanding the capabilities, product offerings and user experience of our digital home buying and selling platform.

Restructuring Expense

Restructuring expense consists primarily of severance and other termination benefits for employees whose roles have been eliminated, consulting fees, and expenses related to the termination of certain leases incurred during the restructuring process. See "Part I – Item 1. Financial Statements – Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements – Note 18. Restructuring" for additional information regarding restructuring expenses.

(Loss) gain on Extinguishment of Debt

(Loss) gain on extinguishment of debt consists primarily of gains or losses recognized in conjunction with the termination or partial debt extinguishment of debt facilities and Convertible Senior Notes and the derecognition of associated unamortized deferred costs.

Interest Expense

Interest expense consists primarily of interest paid or payable and the amortization of debt discounts and debt issuance costs. Interest expense varies period over period, primarily due to fluctuations in our inventory volumes and changes in the floating benchmark interest rates, based on the secured overnight financing rate ("SOFR"), plus an applicable margin, which impact the interest incurred on our asset-backed senior debt facilities (see "— Liquidity and Capital Resources — Debt and Financing Arrangements").

We expect our overall interest expense to increase as inventory increases. Subject to market conditions and cost of capital trade-offs, we will evaluate opportunities to expand our sources of financing over time, which may allow us to diversify our mix of financing sources to include more cost-effective financing relative to our higher cost mezzanine term debt facilities.

Other Income — Net

Other income — net consists primarily of interest income on our Cash and Restricted cash balances and from our investment in money market funds.

Income Tax Expense

We record income taxes using the asset and liability method. Under this method, deferred income tax assets and liabilities are recorded based on the estimated future tax effects of differences between the financial statement and income tax basis of existing assets and liabilities. These differences are measured using the enacted statutory tax rates that are expected to apply to taxable income for the years in which differences are expected to reverse. We recognize the effect on deferred income taxes of a change in tax rates in income in the period that includes the enactment date.

We record a valuation allowance to reduce our deferred tax assets and liabilities to the net amount that we believe is more likely than not to be realized. We consider all available evidence, both positive and negative, including historical levels of income, expectations and risks associated with estimates of future taxable income and ongoing tax planning strategies in assessing the need for a valuation allowance.

Revenue

Revenue increased by $107 million, or 12%, for the three months ended September 30, 2026 compared to the three months ended September 30, 2025. The increase in revenue was primarily attributable to higher sales volumes in the third quarter of 2026, which was driven by higher homes in inventory entering the quarter. We began the third quarter of 2026 with 5,459 homes in inventory, compared to 4,538 homes at the beginning of the third quarter of 2025. We sold 2,728 homes during the three months ended September 30, 2026, compared to 2,568 homes during the three months ended September 30, 2025, representing an increase of 6%. Liquidity and Capital Resources

Overview

Our principal sources of liquidity have historically consisted of cash generated from our operations and from financing activities. As of September 30, 2026, we had cash and cash equivalents of $910 million and restricted cash of $98 million. The decrease in our cash and cash equivalents balance of $52 million as compared to December 31, 2025 resulted primarily from an increase in real estate inventory and operating losses, repayment of the 2026 Notes, the purchase of capped calls, and the repurchase and retirement of common stock, partially offset by the proceeds from the issuance of the 2030-B Notes. Restricted cash decreased $241 million as compared to December 31, 2025, primarily reflecting the deployment of cash to acquire real estate inventory, and improved inventory health, which allowed us to finance homes closer to the maximum advance rates available under our asset-backed debt facilities.

As of September 30, 2026, the Company had total outstanding balances on our asset-backed debt of $2.4 billion and aggregate principal outstanding from convertible senior notes of $712 million. In addition, we had undrawn and uncommitted borrowing capacity of $5.1 billion under our asset-backed debt facilities (as described further below).

As market conditions warrant, we may, from time to time, repurchase our outstanding debt securities in the open market, in privately negotiated transactions, by tender offer, by exchange transaction or otherwise. Such repurchases, if any, will be upon such terms and at such prices as we may determine, and will depend on prevailing market conditions, our liquidity and other factors and may be commenced or suspended at any time. The amounts involved and total consideration paid may be material.

In August 2026, the Company issued $650 million aggregate principal amount of 2030-B Notes in privately negotiated subscription transactions with certain investors. Gross proceeds were $650 million, before placement agent fees and other offering expenses of $11 million. As of September 30, 2026, the $650 million outstanding aggregate principal amount of the 2030-B Notes is classified as a non-current liability.

In August 2026, in connection with the issuance of the 2030-B Notes, the Company purchased the 2030-B Capped Calls from certain financial institutions for an aggregate premium of $52 million and incurred approximately $1 million of related transaction costs. The premium and transaction costs were recorded as a reduction of additional paid-in capital. The 2030-B Capped Calls cover, subject to customary adjustments, approximately 138 million shares of the Company's common stock. By entering into the 2030-B Capped Calls, the Company expects to reduce the potential dilution to its common stock (or, in the event of a conversion of the 2030-B Notes settled in cash, to reduce its cash payment obligation) in the event that at the time of conversion of the 2030-B Notes its common stock price exceeds the conversion price.

The 2026 Notes matured on August 15, 2026, and the Company paid $135 million to settle the outstanding aggregate principal amount and accrued and unpaid interest.

As of September 30, 2026, the $62 million outstanding aggregate principal balance of the 2030-A Notes is classified as a current liability in the condensed consolidated balance sheet. While the 2030-A Notes mature on May 15, 2030, they become convertible during any calendar quarter if the last reported sale price of the Company's common stock exceeds 130% of the conversion price for at least 20 of the 30 consecutive trading days ending on, and including, the last trading day of the immediately preceding calendar quarter. As of September 30, 2026, this condition was met and the 2030-A Notes are convertible through December 31, 2026. See "Part I – Item 1. Financial Statements – Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements – Note 5. Credit Facilities, Long-Term Debt, and Convertible Notes" for additional details regarding the Convertible Senior Notes.

In August 2026, the Company's board of directors authorized the repurchase of shares of the Company's common stock. During the three months ended September 30, 2026, the Company repurchased 45,272,209 shares of its common stock in privately negotiated transactions for an aggregate purchase price of $158 million at an average price of $3.49 per share, excluding transaction costs of $3 million with an aggregate $161 million recognized in additional paid-in capital. See "Part I - Item 1. Financial Statements - Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements - Note 9. Shareholders' Equity" for additional details.

On November 6, 2025, our board of directors declared a distribution of a dividend in the form of warrants to purchase shares of our common stock. On November 21, 2025, a total of 99,295,146 Warrants were issued and distributed to the holders of record of common stock and 2030-A Notes as of the November 18, 2025 record date. The Warrants are initially exercisable only for cash at the applicable exercise price, subject to the Company's ability to permit net exercise as provided in the applicable warrant agreement. For additional details regarding the Warrant Dividend (as defined herein), see "Part II – Item 8. Financial Statements and Supplementary Data – Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements – Note 11. Shareholders' Equity" in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2025.

The table below summarizes the outstanding warrants as of September 30, 2026:

September 30, 2026	Trading Symbol	Exercise Price	Warrants Outstanding
Series K Warrants	OPENW	$ 9.00	33,092,887
Series A Warrants	OPENL	$ 13.00	33,097,097
Series Z Warrants	OPENZ	$ 17.00	33,097,046
Total			99,287,030

We have incurred losses from inception through September 30, 2026, with the exception of net income during the three months ended March 31, 2022 and three months ended June 30, 2023, and we expect to incur additional losses in the future. Our ability to service our debt and fund working capital, business operations and capital expenditures will depend on our ability to generate cash from operating activities, which is subject to our future operating success, and ability to obtain inventory acquisition financing on reasonable terms, which is subject to factors beyond our control, including potential economic recession, rising interest rates, inflation and general economic, political and financial market conditions.

Our working capital requirements may increase should our inventory balance increase. We believe our cash and cash equivalents, together with cash we expect to generate from future operations and borrowings, will be sufficient to meet our working capital and capital expenditure requirements for a period of at least 12 months from the date of this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q.

Debt and Financing Arrangements

Our financing activities include: short-term borrowings under our asset-backed senior revolving credit facilities; the issuance of long-term asset-backed senior term debt, asset-backed mezzanine term debt, convertible debt, and new issuances of equity. Historically, we have required access to external financing resources in order to fund growth, expansion and strategic initiatives, and we expect this to continue in the future. Our access to capital markets can be impacted by factors outside our control, including economic conditions.

We primarily use asset-backed debt, consisting of asset-backed senior debt facilities and asset-backed mezzanine term debt facilities, to provide financing for our real estate inventory purchases and renovations. Our business is capital intensive and maintaining adequate liquidity and capital resources is needed as we continue to scale and accumulate additional inventory. We intend to actively manage our relationships with multiple financial institutions and seek to optimize duration, flexibility, efficiency and cost of funds, but there can be no assurance that we will be able to obtain sufficient capital for our business or to do so on acceptable financial and other terms.

Our asset-backed facilities are each collateralized by a specified pool of assets, consisting of real estate inventory, restricted cash and equity interests in certain consolidated subsidiaries of Opendoor that directly or indirectly own our real estate inventory. The terms of our inventory financing facilities require an Opendoor subsidiary to comply with customary financial covenants, such as maintaining certain levels of liquidity, tangible net worth or leverage (ratio of debt to tangible net worth). As of September 30, 2026, the Company was in compliance with all financial covenants.

Our property financing subsidiaries' assets and credit generally are not available to satisfy the debts and other obligations of any other Opendoor entities. Our asset-backed debt is generally non-recourse to Opendoor and our subsidiaries that are not party to the relevant financing arrangements, except as described in "Part I – Item 1. Financial Statements – Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements – Note 5. Credit Facilities, Long-Term Debt, and Convertible Notes".

Our asset-backed senior debt facilities generally provide for advance rates of 75% to 90% against our cost basis in the underlying properties upon acquisition. Our mezzanine term facilities may finance up to 95% to 100% of our cost basis in the underlying properties upon acquisition. The maximum initial advance rates vary by facility and generally decrease on a fixed timeline that varies by facility based on the length of time a given property has been financed and other facility-specific adjustments, including adjustments based on collateral performance.

We would be required to keep amounts in restricted cash accounts to collateralize our asset-backed term debt facilities if the property borrowing base is insufficient to satisfy the borrowing base requirements or if the value of the assets of a certain Opendoor subsidiary declines below certain levels. If these events occur, we may utilize other available credit facilities for our cash needs, potentially at higher interest rates. The amounts required to be kept in restricted cash accounts may fluctuate due to seasonality, timing of property acquisitions and resales, and the outstanding loan balances under our asset-backed term debt facilities.

The following table summarizes certain details related to our asset-backed debt as of September 30, 2026 (in millions, except interest rates):

Net Cash (Used in) Provided by Operating Activities

Net cash (used in) provided by operating activities was $(1.8) billion and $979 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2026 and 2025, respectively. For the nine months ended September 30, 2026, cash used in operating activities was primarily driven by the $1.7 billion increase in real estate inventory and our net loss, net of non-cash items, of $98 million. For the nine months ended September 30, 2025, cash provided by operating activities was primarily driven by a $1.1 billion decrease in real estate inventory, partially offset by our net loss, net of non-cash items, of $66 million.

Net Cash Used in Investing Activities

Net cash used in investing activities was $(28) million and $(9) million for the nine months ended September 30, 2026 and 2025, respectively. For the nine months ended September 30, 2026, cash used in investing activities consisted of a $13 million increase in property and equipment primarily related to IDSW capitalization, a $10 million increase for the acquisition of certain subsidiaries of Doma Technology LLC, net of cash acquired, and a $5 million increase in non-marketable equity securities. For the nine months ended September 30, 2025, cash used in investing activities consisted of a $9 million increase in property and equipment primarily related to IDSW capitalization, as well as, a $6 million increase in non-marketable equity securities, partially offset by a decrease in marketable securities of $6 million.

Net Cash Provided by (Used in) Financing Activities

Net cash provided by (used in) financing activities was $1.5 billion and $(281) million for the nine months ended September 30, 2026 and 2025, respectively. For the nine months ended September 30, 2026, cash provided by financing activities was primarily attributable to $1.2 billion net proceeds from asset-backed debt and $650 million from the issuance of the 2030-B Notes. The proceeds were partially offset by the repayment of $135 million of outstanding aggregate 2026 Notes, the $53 million purchase of capped calls related to the 2030-B Notes, and the repurchase and retirement of $161 million of common stock. For the nine months ended September 30, 2025, cash used in financing activities was primarily attributable to $584 million net principal payments on asset-backed debt, partially offset by approximately $198 million of total cash proceeds, after commissions, from the issuance of common stock under the at-the-market offering agreement, as well as $75 million of proceeds from the issuance of convertible senior notes, net of discount, and $41 million of proceeds from certain PIPE offerings.

Contractual Obligations and Commitments

Contractual obligations are cash amounts that we are obligated to pay as part of certain contracts that we have entered into during the normal course of business. Other than the issuance of the 2030-B Notes and repayment of the 2026 Notes described above, there have been no material changes outside the ordinary course of business in our commitments under contractual obligations as previously disclosed in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2025. Below is a table that shows our material contractual obligations as of September 30, 2026:

	Payment Due by Year
(in millions)	Total	Less than 1 year	1 – 3 years	4 – 5 years	More than 5 years
Senior revolving credit facilities[1]	$ 1,314	$ 1,314	$ —	$ —	$ —
Senior and mezzanine term debt facilities[2]	1,181	794	387	—	—
Convertible senior notes[3]	716	66	—	650	—
Operating leases[4]	10	1	5	4	—
Purchase commitments[5]	620	620	—	—	—
Total	$ 3,841	$ 2,795	$ 392	$ 654	$ —

(1) Represents the principal amounts outstanding as of September 30, 2026. Includes estimated interest payments, calculated using the variable rate in existence at period end over an assumed holding period of 90 days. Borrowings under the senior revolving credit facilities are payable as the related inventory is sold. The payment is expected to be within one year of September 30, 2026.

(2) Represents the principal amounts outstanding as of September 30, 2026 and estimated interest payments assuming the principal balances remain outstanding until maturity. The final maturity dates of the senior and mezzanine term debt facilities vary, as discussed above.

(3) Represents the principal amounts outstanding for the 2030-A Notes assuming conversion within one year (noteholders may convert through December 31, 2026) and the $650 million principal amount of the 2030-B Notes due August 15, 2030, assuming no earlier conversion, redemption or repurchase of the 2030-B Notes. Upon conversion of the 2030-B Notes, the Company may elect to settle in cash, shares of its common stock, or a combination thereof. Actual cash principal payments for the 2030-B Notes could therefore differ from the amount presented. Any principal remaining outstanding at maturity is payable in cash. The 2030-B Notes do not bear regular interest and accordingly no interest payments are included. The 2030-A Notes mature on May 15, 2030, and the 2030-B Notes mature on August 15, 2030. Assuming no conversions total future cash outflows for the convertible senior notes would be as follows:

	Payment Due by Year
(in millions)	Total	Less than 1 year	1 – 3 years	4 – 5 years	More than 5 years
Convertible senior notes	$ 729	$ 4	$ 9	$ 716	$ —

(4) Represents future payments for long-term operating leases that have commenced, or have been executed but not yet commenced, as of September 30, 2026.

(5) As of September 30, 2026, we were under contract to purchase 1,780 homes for an aggregate purchase price of $620 million.

Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates

Discussion and analysis of our financial condition and results of operations are based on our financial statements, which have been prepared in accordance with GAAP. The preparation of these financial statements requires us to make estimates and judgments that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and related disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities, revenue, and expenses at the date of the financial statements. Generally, we base our estimates on historical experience and on various other assumptions in accordance with GAAP that we believe to be reasonable under the circumstances. Actual results may differ from these estimates under different assumptions or conditions.

We consider an accounting judgment, estimate or assumption to be critical when (1) the estimate or assumption is complex in nature or requires a high degree of judgment and (2) the use of different judgments, estimates and assumptions could have a material impact on the condensed consolidated financial statements. Based on this definition, critical accounting policies and estimates are discussed in "Part II – Item 7. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations – Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates" in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2025. There have been no significant changes to these critical accounting estimates during the first nine months of 2026. In addition, we have other key accounting policies and estimates that are described in "Part I – Item 1. Financial Statements – Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements – Note 1. Description of Business and Accounting Policies" in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

For information on recent accounting standards, see "Part I – Item 1. Financial Statements – Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements – Note 1. Description of Business and Accounting Policies".

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk.

We are exposed to market risks in the ordinary course of our business. These risks primarily consist of fluctuations in interest rates and exposure to inflationary pressures.

Interest Rate Risk

We are subject to market risk by way of changes in interest rates on borrowings under our inventory financing facilities. As of September 30, 2026, we had total outstanding balances on our asset-backed debt of $2.4 billion, 41% of which was based on a fixed rate with an average duration of 1.2 years and the remaining 59% was based on a floating rate. Total property financing interest expense for the nine months ended September 30, 2026 was $77 million, of which $51 million was fixed and $26 million was floating. Accordingly, fluctuations in market interest rates may increase or decrease our interest expense. We may use interest rate cap derivatives, interest rate swaps or other interest rate hedging instruments to economically hedge and manage interest rate risk with respect to our variable floating rate debt. Many of our floating rate debt facilities also have benchmark rate floors. See "Part I – Item 1. Financial Statements – Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements – Note 5. Credit Facilities, Long-Term Debt, and Convertible Notes" for additional information regarding our inventory financing facilities and fixed and floating interest rates. Assuming no change in the outstanding borrowings on our credit facilities, we estimate that a one percentage point increase in applicable benchmark rates would increase our annual interest expense by approximately $14 million as of September 30, 2026.

Inflation Risk

We believe the inflation experienced in recent years has impacted the cost of goods and services that we consume, such as labor and materials costs for home repairs. Moreover, despite certain legal challenges, the current U.S. presidential administration has implemented tariffs on imports from a number of countries, and has proposed or announced tariffs on goods from numerous additional countries and other trade policies intended to restrict imports, which may further increase the cost and the scarcity of materials used for home repairs. Inflationary pressures may additionally be compounded by elevated transportation costs linked to the geopolitical environment arising from events in the Middle East. We endeavor to offset these impacts in our business by appropriately considering them in our pricing and operational models. However, if our costs were to become subject to significant incremental inflationary pressure, we may not be able to fully offset such higher costs by adjusting our operational model or our pricing methodology. Our inability to do so could harm our business, results of operations, and financial condition.

Since 2022, the Federal Reserve has raised, lowered and again raised the federal funds rate, increasing it sharply in 2022 and 2023, reducing it in 2024 and 2025, and raising it again in September 2026. Changes in monetary policy and expectations for future rates influence mortgage rates. Higher mortgage rates reduce buyers' purchasing power and can put downward pressure on home prices, while fluctuations in rates can widen the gap between seller price expectations and what buyers can afford. These conditions can slow transactions, extend holding periods, increase holding and financing costs, and adversely affect the resale value of our owned inventory. See "Part I – Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations – Current Housing Environment" for a further discussion of the impact of the elevated federal funds rate on our business.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures.

Inherent Limitations on Effectiveness of Controls

In designing and evaluating our disclosure controls and procedures, management recognizes that any controls and procedures, no matter how well designed and operated, can provide only reasonable assurance of achieving the desired control objectives. In addition, the design of disclosure controls and procedures must reflect the fact that there are resource constraints and that management is required to apply judgment in evaluating the benefits of possible controls and procedures relative to their costs.

Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures

Our management, with the participation of our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, evaluated the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) under the Exchange Act), as of the end of the period covered by this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q. Based on the evaluation, our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures are effective at the reasonable assurance level as of September 30, 2026.

Changes in Internal Control over Financial Reporting

There were no changes in our internal control over financial reporting in connection with the evaluation required by Rules 13a-15(d) and 15d-15(d) of the Exchange Act that occurred during the quarter ended September 30, 2026 that materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.

PART II – OTHER INFORMATION

Item 1. Legal Proceedings.

The information required by this Item 1 is incorporated herein by reference to the discussion in "Part I – Item 1. Financial Statements – Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements – Note 17. Commitments and Contingencies – Legal Matters."

In addition to the legal matters referenced above, we are currently and have in the past been subject to legal proceedings and regulatory actions in the ordinary course of business. We do not anticipate that the ultimate liability, if any, arising out of any such matters will have a material effect on our financial condition, results of operations or cash flows. In the future, we may be subject to further legal proceedings and regulatory actions in the ordinary course of business and we cannot predict whether any such proceeding or matter will have a material effect on our financial condition, results of operations or cash flows.

Item 1A. Risk Factors.

In the course of conducting our business operations, we are exposed to a variety of risks. You should carefully consider the risks described below, as applicable, the risks described in "Part I – Item 1A. Risk Factors," in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2025 (the "Annual Report") as well as the other information in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q, including our financial statements and related notes and "Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations," before deciding whether to invest in our common stock. Any of the risk factors we described in "Part I – Item 1A. Risk Factors," in our Annual Report or in subsequent periodic reports, have affected or could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations, and prospects. The market price of shares of our common stock could decline, possibly significantly or permanently, if one or more of these risks and uncertainties occurs. Certain statements in "Risk Factors" are forward-looking statements. See "Forward-Looking Statements."

There have been no material changes to our risk factors since the Annual Report, other than the following:

We operate in a highly regulated industry and are subject to a wide range of federal, state, and local laws, rules, and regulations. Failure to comply with these laws, rules, and regulations or to obtain and maintain required licenses, could adversely affect our business, results of operations, and financial condition.

We operate in highly regulated businesses through a number of different channels across the United States. As a result, we are currently subject to a variety of, and may in the future become subject to additional, federal, state and local statutes and regulations in various jurisdictions (as well as judicial and administrative decisions and state common law), which are subject to change at any time, including laws regarding the real estate and mortgage industries, settlement services, insurance, construction, mobile and internet based businesses and other businesses that rely on advertising, as well as data privacy and consumer protection laws, and employment laws. These laws are complex and sometimes ambiguous, could directly impact our operations, and can be costly to comply with, require significant management time and effort, require a substantial investment in technology, and subject us to supervisory audits, claims, government enforcement actions, civil and criminal liability or other remedies, including suspension of business operations.

For example, members of Congress and lawmaking bodies in several different states have proposed, and, in some cases enacted, legislation intended to disincentivize or restrict certain business entities, pooled investment funds, and institutional purchasers from acquiring, owning, or, in some cases, obtaining an interest in, single-family residential real estate. These laws and proposals generally attempt to prohibit or discourage restricted entities from purchasing residential real estate, and/or establish a maximum allowable number of single-family residential homes that can be purchased or held in inventory by certain specified types of entities. Some of these proposals would establish statutory penalties for violations, while others attempt to establish significant tax penalties to be levied upon (or attempt to limit or eliminate certain tax deductions or benefits for) specified purchasers and owners of single-family residential homes.

Additionally, in January 2026, President Trump issued an executive order directing federal agencies to prevent agencies and government-sponsored enterprises from facilitating the acquisition by "large institutional investors" of "single-family homes" in the United States that could otherwise be purchased by individual owner-occupants. Additionally, the order requires owners of single-family rentals participating in federal housing assistance programs to disclose direct or indirect ownership interests to determine involvement of large institutional investors.

In July 2026, the 21st Century ROAD to Housing Act (the “ROAD Act”) was enacted in response to President Trump’s order. Beginning January 7, 2027, it generally prohibits “large institutional investors” from purchasing, or contracting to purchase, single-family homes, subject to certain enumerated “excepted purchases”. These include purchases of homes that are newly constructed, renovated or converted from rental use for sale by a large institutional investor and not rented pending sale. The ROAD Act generally defines a large institutional investor as a for-profit entity engaged, in whole or in part, in the business of investing in, owning, renting, managing or holding single-family homes that, alone or in concert with others, has direct or indirect investment control of at least 350 single-family homes. Homes purchased in excepted purchases after enactment are excluded from that count. Violations may result in civil penalties of up to the greater of $1 million or three times the purchase price of the property involved. The ROAD Act also requires large institutional investors to confirm their status, home counts and home locations to federal authorities annually.

In October 2026, the U.S. Department of the Treasury published a proposed rule to implement the ROAD Act. Among other things, the proposed rule would broadly interpret what it means to be engaged "in the business of" investing in, owning, renting, managing or holding single-family homes. Under the proposal, this would include holding single-family homes for the purpose, in whole or in part, of receiving investment gains or any other type of income or financial gain. The proposed rule includes only a narrow exclusion for holdings that are temporary and incidental to a different bona fide business. It also clarifies the requirements for certain excepted purchases. However, it does not address the exception for homes renovated or otherwise purchased for sale contemplated by the ROAD Act. For example, the ROAD Act exempts purchases of homes that are newly constructed, renovated, or a rental conversion for sale by a large institutional investor, as long as the home is not rented pending sale. The proposed rule is subject to public comment and may change before it is finalized, and Treasury has indicated that it may issue additional rules addressing other excepted purchase categories.

Although we are monitoring the rulemaking process and any final rules or other guidance may differ from the proposed rule, there can be no assurance that we will not be classified as a “large institutional investor” or other restricted entity. If Opendoor is included within the definition of “large institutional investor” and/or not exempted under the final rules, these restrictions could have a significant adverse impact on our ability to buy and sell homes, access GSE programs for financing or securitization purposes, or participate in federal housing programs. Additionally, certain of these proposals may cause originators of residential consumer loans to curtail or potentially cease originating and selling loans collateralized by properties in specific states, which could have an adverse effect on our mortgage business. These and other potential consequences could materially and adversely impact our business, financial condition, and results of operations.

We buy and sell homes, operate a mortgage business, provide real estate brokerage services, provide title insurance and settlement services, provide other product offerings, and have historically provided brokerage services, which results in us receiving or facilitating transmission of Personal Information. This information is increasingly subject to legislation and regulation in the United States. These laws and regulations are generally intended to protect the privacy and security of Personal Information, including borrower Social Security numbers, banking information, and credit card information that is collected, processed and transmitted. These laws also can restrict our use of this Personal Information for other commercial purposes. We could be adversely affected if government regulations require us to significantly change our business practices with respect to this type of information, if penetration of network security or misuse of Personal Information occurs, or if the third parties that we engage with to provide processing and screening services violate applicable laws and regulations, misuse or mishandle information, or experience network security breaches.

In order to provide the broad range of products and services that we offer customers, certain of our subsidiaries maintain title insurance and escrow, property and casualty insurance, construction, and real estate licenses in certain states in which we operate. These entities are subject to stringent local, state, and federal laws and regulations and to the scrutiny of state and federal government agencies as licensed businesses.

Mortgage products are regulated at the state level by licensing authorities and administrative agencies, with additional oversight from the CFPB and other federal agencies. These laws generally regulate the manner in which lending and lending-related activities, including mortgage brokering, are marketed or made available to consumers, including, but not limited to, advertising, finding and qualifying applicants, the provision of consumer disclosures, payments for services, and record keeping requirements; these laws include, at the federal level, RESPA, the Fair Credit Reporting Act (as amended by the Fair and Accurate Credit Transactions Act), the Truth in Lending Act (including the Home Ownership and Equity Protection Act of 1994), the Equal Credit Opportunity Act, the Fair Housing Act, the GLBA, the Electronic Fund Transfer Act, the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act, the Military Lending Act, the Homeowners Protection Act, the Home Mortgage Disclosure Act, the Secure and Fair Enforcement for Mortgage Licensing Act of 2008, the Federal Trade Commission Act, the Dodd Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act of 2010, the Bank Secrecy Act (including the Office of Foreign Assets Control and the Uniting and Strengthening America by Providing Appropriate Tools Required to Intercept and Obstruct Terrorism Act), the TCPA, the Mortgage Acts and Practices Advertising Rule (Regulation N), all implementing regulations, and various other federal laws.

The CFPB also has broad authority to regulate mortgage origination activities and enforce prohibitions on practices that it deems to be unfair, deceptive or abusive. The growing regulatory focus on AI/automated underwriting, digital mortgage platforms, property valuation models, and fair lending may require us to adapt our business practices and could affect our ability to maintain compliance. Heightened uncertainty exists with respect to the future of the CFPB, including its leadership and enforcement priorities. Additionally, state and local laws may restrict the amount and nature of interest and fees that may be charged by a lender or mortgage broker, impose more stringent privacy requirements and protections for servicemembers, and/or otherwise regulate the manner in which lenders or mortgage brokers operate or advertise. We cannot predict the specific legislative or executive actions that may result or what impact such changes may have on our mortgage operations.

As a buyer and seller of residential real estate through our business, we hold real estate brokerage licenses in multiple states and may apply for additional real estate brokerage licenses as our business grows. To maintain these licenses, we must comply with the requirements governing the licensing and conduct of real estate brokerage services and brokerage-related businesses in the markets where we operate. We may be subject to additional local, state and federal laws and regulations governing residential real estate transactions, including those administered by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, and the states and municipalities in which we transact. Further, due to the geographic scope of our operations and the nature of the products and services we provide, certain of our other subsidiaries maintain real estate brokerage, property and casualty, and title insurance and escrow, and construction licenses in certain states in which we operate. Each of these licenses subjects our subsidiaries to different federal, state, and local laws and the scrutiny of different licensing authorities, including state insurance departments. Each subsidiary must comply with different licensing statutes and regulations, as well as varied laws that govern the offering of compliant products and services.

For certain licenses, we are required to designate individual licensed brokers of record, qualified individuals and control persons. Certain licensed entities also are subject to routine examination and monitoring by the CFPB (for mortgage and title and escrow) and/or state licensing authorities. We cannot assure you that we, or our licensed personnel, are and will remain at all times, in full compliance with local, state and federal real estate, title insurance and escrow, property and casualty insurance, real estate and mortgage licensing and consumer protection laws and regulations, and we may be subject to litigation, government investigations and enforcement actions, fines or other penalties in the event of any non-compliance. As a result of findings from examinations, we also may be required to take a number of corrective actions, including modifying business practices and making refunds of fees or money earned. In addition, adverse findings in one state may be relied on by another state to conduct investigations and impose remedies. If we apply for new licenses, we will become subject to additional licensing requirements, which we may not be in compliance with at all times. If in the future a state agency were to determine that we are required to obtain additional licenses in that state in order to operate our business, or if we lose or do not renew an existing license or are otherwise found to be in violation of a law or regulation, we may be subject to fines or legal penalties, lawsuits, enforcement actions, void contracts, or our business operations in that state may be suspended or prohibited. Our business reputation with consumers and third parties also could be damaged. Compliance with, and monitoring of, these laws and regulations is complicated and costly and may inhibit our ability to innovate or grow.

If we are unable to comply with these laws or regulations in a cost-effective manner, it may require us to modify certain products and services, which could require a substantial investment and result in a loss of revenue, or cease providing the impacted product or service altogether. Furthermore, laws and regulations and their interpretation and application may also change from time to time and those changes could have a material adverse effect on our products and business.

Item 2. Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities and Use of Proceeds.

Issuer Purchases of Equity Securities

The following table sets forth information concerning our purchases of common stock for the periods indicated:

September 1 - 30, 2026	—	$ —	—	—
Total	45,272,209		—

(1) In August 2026, we repurchased shares of our common stock in privately negotiated transactions through a financial intermediary in connection with the issuance of the 2030-B Notes.

Item 3. Defaults Upon Senior Securities.

None.

Item 4. Mine Safety Disclosures.

Not applicable.

Item 5. Other Information.

(a) None.

(b) None.

(c) The following table describes contracts, instructions or written plans for the sale or purchase of our securities that were intended to satisfy the affirmative defense conditions of Rule 10b5-1(c) or any "non-Rule 10b5-1 trading arrangement" by our directors or officers (as defined in Rule 16a-1(f) under the Exchange Act) during the three-month period ended September 30, 2026.

			Trading Arrangement
	Action	Date	Rule 10b5-1[1]	Non-Rule 10b5-1[2]	Maximum Shares to be Sold	Expiration Date
Christy Schwartz (Chief Financial Officer)	Terminate	8/25/2026	X		983,273[3]	7/31/2027

(1) Intended to satisfy the affirmative defense of Rule 10b5-1(c)

(2) Not intended to satisfy the affirmative defense of Rule 10b5-1(c)

(3) At the time of adoption, the maximum number of shares that could be sold was unknown. The Rule 10b5-1 trading arrangement contemplated, as of the adoption date, the sale of up to 859,977 shares of common stock subject to RSUs previously granted to Ms. Schwartz that will vest or vested at various dates between May 15, 2026 and July 15, 2027, 63,701 stock options, and 59,595 shares held directly by Ms. Schwartz. The aggregate number of Ms. Schwartz's RSU shares that would have been available for sale under the Rule 10b5-1 trading arrangement was not determinable because the shares available would be net of shares sold to satisfy tax withholding obligations that arise in connection with the vesting and settlement of such RSU awards.

APPENDIX A

Unless otherwise defined herein, capitalized terms used in this Appendix A to the Offering Document will be ascribed the same defined meanings as set forth in the Offering Document of which this Appendix A forms a part (or the Plan or other written agreement as specified in the Offering Document).

Terms and Conditions

This Appendix A includes additional terms and conditions applicable to all Participants providing services to the Company or a Designated Subsidiary (as defined in the Plan) outside the United States, and additional terms applicable to Participants providing services to the Company or a Designated Subsidiary in the countries identified below. If Participant is a citizen or resident (or is considered as such for local law purposes) of a country other than the country in which Participant is currently residing and/or working, or if Participant relocates to another country after enrolling in the Plan, the Company, in its discretion, will determine to what extent the terms and conditions contained herein will apply to Participant.

Notifications

This Appendix A also may include notifications that contain information regarding exchange controls and certain other issues of which Participants should be aware with respect to participation in the Plan. The information is based on the securities, exchange control, and other applicable laws in effect in the respective countries as of June 2022. Such applicable laws are often complex and change frequently. As a result, the Company recommends that Participants not rely on the information in this Appendix A as the only source of information relating to the consequences of participation in the Plan because the information included herein may be out of date at the time that Participants purchase Shares under the Plan or subsequently sell the Shares.

In addition, the information contained herein is general in nature and may not apply to a Participant's particular situation and the Company is not in a position to assure a Participant of any particular result. Participant should seek appropriate professional advice as to how the applicable laws in Participant's country may apply to Participant's particular situation.

Finally, if a Participant is a citizen or resident of a country other than the one in which he or she is currently working (or if he or she is considered as such for local law purposes) or if he or she moves to another country after all or any portion of the options has been granted under the Plan, the information contained herein may not be applicable to such Participant.

I. GLOBAL PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO PARTICIPANTS IN ALL COUNTRIES OTHER THAN THE UNITED STATES

Terms and Conditions

1. Tax Withholding Considerations. Participant acknowledges and agrees that, regardless of any action taken by the Company or any Designated Subsidiary with respect to any or all income tax, social security, social insurances contributions, payroll tax, fringe benefit, or other tax-related items related to Participant's participation in the Plan and legally applicable to Participant including, without limitation, in connection with the grant of the Option, the exercise, purchase or sale of Shares acquired under the Plan and/or the receipt of any dividends on such Shares ("Tax-Related Items"), the ultimate liability for all Tax-Related Items is and remains Participant's responsibility and may exceed the amount actually withheld by the Company or any Designated Subsidiary. Furthermore, Participant acknowledges that the Company and/or Designated Subsidiary (a) make no representations or undertakings regarding the treatment of any Tax-Related Items in connection with any aspect of the Option under the Plan and (b) do not commit to and are under no obligation to structure the terms of the grant of the Option or any aspect of Participant's participation in the Plan to reduce or eliminate his or her liability for Tax-Related Items or achieve any particular tax result. Further, if Participant has become subject to tax in more than one jurisdiction between the Enrollment Date and the date of any relevant taxable or tax withholding event, as applicable, Participant acknowledges that the Company and/or the Designated Subsidiary (or former employer, as applicable) may be required to withhold or account for Tax-Related Items in more than one jurisdiction.

Prior to the Option exercise or any other relevant taxable or tax withholding event, as applicable, Participant agrees to make adequate arrangements satisfactory to the Company to satisfy all Tax-Related Items. In this regard, Participant authorizes the Company and/or any Designated Subsidiary, or their respective agents, at their discretion, to satisfy the obligations with regard to all Tax-Related Items by one or a combination of the following: (a) withholding from Participant's wages or other compensation paid to Participant, (b) withholding from proceeds of the sale of the Shares acquired under the Plan either through a voluntary sale or through a mandatory sale arranged by the Company (on Participant's behalf pursuant to this authorization), (c) using any other method permitted by the Plan. Finally, Participant agrees to pay to the Company and/or Designated Subsidiary any amount of Tax-Related Items that the Company and/or Designated Subsidiary may be required to withhold as a result of Participant's participation in the Plan that cannot be satisfied by the means previously described. The Company may refuse to issue or deliver the Shares or the proceeds of the sale of Shares if Participant fails to comply with his or her obligations in connection with the Tax-Related Items.

2. Foreign Asset/Account Reporting Requirements. Participant acknowledges that there may be certain foreign asset and/or account reporting requirements which may affect Participant's ability to acquire or hold Shares acquired or cash received from participating in the Plan in a brokerage account outside his or her country. Participant also may be required to repatriate sale proceeds or other funds received as a result of participating in the Plan to his or her country through a designated bank or broker within a certain time after receipt. It is Participant's responsibility to be compliant with such regulations and Participant should speak with his or her personal advisor on this matter.

3. Foreign Exchange Considerations. Participant acknowledges, understands and agrees that neither the Company nor any Designated Subsidiary shall be liable for any foreign exchange rate fluctuation between Participant's local currency and the U.S. dollar that may affect the value of the Option, or of any amounts due to Participant under the Plan or as a result of exercising the Option and/or the subsequent sale of any Shares acquired under the Plan. Participant understands and agrees that he or she will bear any and all risk associated with the exchange or fluctuation of currency associated with his or her participation in the Plan. Participant understands, acknowledges and agrees that Participant may be responsible for reporting inbound transactions or fund transfers that exceed a certain amount. Participant is advised to seek appropriate professional advice as to how the exchange control regulations apply to the Option and Participant's specific situation and understands that the relevant laws and regulations can change frequently and occasionally on a retroactive basis.

4. Nature of Grant. In accepting the Option, Participant acknowledges, understands, and agrees that:

(a) the Plan is established voluntarily by the Company; it is discretionary in nature and it may be modified, amended, suspended or terminated by the Company at any time, unless otherwise provided in the Plan and the Offering Document;

(b) the grant of the Option is voluntary and occasional and does not create any contractual or other right to receive future grants of options, or benefits in lieu of options, even if options have been granted in the past;

(c) all decisions with respect to future option or other grants, if any, will be at the sole discretion of the Company;

(d) Participant is voluntarily participating in the Plan;

(e) the Option and any Shares acquired under the Plan are not intended to replace any pension rights or compensation;

(f) the Option and Shares acquired under the Plan and the income and value of same, are not part of normal or expected compensation for any purpose including, but not limited to, calculating any severance, resignation, termination, redundancy, dismissal, end-of-service payments, bonuses, long-service awards, pension or retirement, or welfare benefits or similar payments;

(g) the future value of the Shares underlying the Option is unknown, indeterminable, and cannot be predicted;

(h) if the underlying Shares do not increase in value, the Option will have no value;

(i) if Participant exercises the Option and acquires Shares, the value of such Shares may increase or decrease in value, even below the Option Price;

(j) for purposes of the Option, Participant's status as a service provider will be considered terminated as of the date Participant is no longer actively providing services to the Company or Designated Subsidiary (regardless of the reason for such termination and whether or not later found to be invalid or in breach of employment laws in the jurisdiction where Participant is a service provider or the terms of Participant's employment agreement, if any), and unless otherwise expressly provided in the Offering Document (including by reference other arrangements or contracts) or determined by the Company, (i) Participant's right to vest in the Option under the Plan, if any, will terminate as of such date and will not be extended by any notice period (e.g., Participant's period of service would not include any contractual notice period or any period of "garden leave" or similar period mandated under employment laws in the jurisdiction where Participant is a service provider or the terms of Participant's employment agreement, if any, unless Participant is providing bona fide services during such time), and (ii) the period (if any) during which Participant may exercise the Option after such termination of Participant's engagement as a service provider will commence on the date Participant ceases to actively provide services and will not be extended by any notice period mandated under employment laws in the jurisdiction where Participant is employed or the terms of Participant's employment agreement, if any; the Company will have the exclusive discretion to determine when Participant is no longer actively providing services for purposes of the Option grant (including whether Participant may still be considered to be providing services while on a leave of absence and consistent with local law);

(k) unless otherwise provided in the Plan or by the Company in its discretion, the Option and the benefits evidenced by the Offering Document do not create any entitlement to have the Option or any such benefits transferred to, or assumed by, another company nor be exchanged, cashed-out, or substituted for, in connection with any corporate transaction affecting the Shares; and

(l) no claim or entitlement to compensation or damages shall arise from forfeiture of the Option resulting from the termination of Participant's status as a service provider (for any reason whatsoever whether or not later found to be invalid or in breach of employment laws in the jurisdiction where Participant is a service provider or the terms of Participant's employment agreement, if any), and in consideration of the grant of the Option to which Participant is otherwise not entitled, Participant irrevocably agrees never to institute any claim against the Company or Designated Subsidiary and waives his or her ability, if any, to bring any such claim, and releases the Company or Designated Subsidiary from any such claim; if, notwithstanding the foregoing, any such claim is allowed by a court of competent jurisdiction, then, by participating in the Plan, Participant shall be deemed irrevocably to have agreed not to pursue such claim and agrees to execute any and all documents necessary to request dismissal or withdrawal of such claim; and

5. Data Privacy*. Participant understands that the Company may collect, where permissible under applicable law certain personal information about Participant, including, but not limited to, Participant's name, home address and telephone number, date of birth, social insurance number or other identification number, salary, nationality, job title, any Shares or directorships held in the Company, details of the Option granted under the Plan or any other entitlement to Shares awarded, canceled, exercised, purchased, vested, unvested or outstanding in Participant's favor ("Data"), for the exclusive purpose of implementing, administering and managing the Plan. Participant understands that Company may transfer Participant's Data to the United States, which may have different, including less stringent, data protection laws than the laws in Participant's country. Participant understands that the Company will transfer Participant's Data to its designated broker or such other stock plan service provider as may be selected by the Company in the future, which is assisting the Company with the implementation, administration and management of the Plan. Participant understands that the recipients of the Data may be located in the United States or elsewhere, and that a recipient's country of operation (e.g., the United States) may have different, including less stringent, data privacy laws that Participant's jurisdiction does not consider to be equivalent to the protections in Participant's country. Participant understands that he or she may request a list with the names and addresses of any potential recipients of the Data by contacting Participant's local human resources representative. Participant authorizes the Company, the Company's designated broker and any other possible recipients which may assist the Company with implementing, administering and managing the Plan to receive, possess, use, retain and transfer the Data, in electronic or other form, for the sole purpose of implementing, administering and managing Participant's participation in the Plan. Participant understands that Data will be held only as long as is necessary to implement, administer and manage Participant's participation in the Plan. Participant understands that he or she may, at any time, view Data, request additional information about the storage and processing of Data, require any necessary amendments to Data or refuse or withdraw the consents herein, in any case without cost, by contacting in writing Participant's local human resources representative. Further, Participant understands that he or she is providing the consent herein on a purely voluntary basis. If Participant does not consent, or if Participant later seeks to revoke Participant's consent, Participant's employment status or career with the Company will not be adversely affected; the only consequence of refusing or withdrawing Participant's consent is that the Company would not be able to grant Participant awards under the Plan or other equity awards, or administer or maintain such awards. Therefore, Participant understands that refusing or withdrawing Participant's consent may affect Participant's ability to participate in the Plan. For more information on the consequences of Participant's refusal to consent or withdrawal of consent, Participant understands that he or she may contact Participant's local human resources representative.*

Participant hereby explicitly and unambiguously consents to the collection, use and transfer, in electronic or other form, of Participant's Data as described herein and any other Plan materials by and among, as applicable, the Company or Designated Subsidiary for the exclusive purpose of implementing, administering and managing Participant's participation in the Plan. Participant understands that his or her consent will be sought and obtained for any processing or transfer of Participant's data for any purpose other than as described in the Offering Document and any other plan materials.

6. Insider Trading Restrictions/Market Abuse Laws. Participant acknowledges that Participant may be subject to insider trading restrictions and/or market abuse laws in his or her jurisdiction, which may affect his or her ability to directly or indirectly, accept, acquire, sell or attempt to sell or otherwise dispose of Shares or rights to the Shares, or rights linked to the value of Shares during such times as Participant is considered to have "inside information" regarding the Company (as defined by the laws and/or regulations in applicable jurisdictions or Participant's country). Local insider trading laws and regulations may prohibit the cancellation or amendment of orders placed by Participant before possessing the inside information. Furthermore, Participant may be prohibited from (i) disclosing inside information to any third party, including fellow service providers and/or other Company service providers (other than on a "need to know" basis) and (ii) "tipping" third parties or causing them to otherwise buy or sell securities. Any restrictions under these laws or regulations are separate from and in addition to any restrictions that may be imposed under any applicable Company insider trading policy. Participant acknowledges that it is Participant's responsibility to comply with any applicable restrictions, and Participant is advised to speak to his or her personal advisor on this matter.

7. Recommendation Regarding External Advice. Participant understands and agrees that neither the Company or Designated Subsidiary is providing any tax, legal or financial advice, nor is the Company or Designated Subsidiary making any recommendations or assessments regarding Participant's participation in the Plan, or Participant's acquisition or sale of the underlying Shares, or any subsequent disposal or retention of such Shares. Participant understands that he or she is hereby advised to consult with Participant's own personal tax, legal and financial advisors regarding Participant's participation in the Plan before taking any action related to the Plan.

8. English Language. Participant acknowledges that he or she is sufficiently proficient in the English language or has consulted with an advisor who is sufficiently proficient in English, so as to allow Participant to understand the terms and conditions of the Offering Document. If Participant has received the Offering Document or any other document related to the Plan translated into a language other than English, Participant understands that such translated documents were provided for convenience only, and that if the meaning of the translated version is different than the English version, the English version will control.

II. COUNTRY-SPECIFIC PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO PARTICIPANTS IN THE COUNTRIES INCLUDED BELOW

CANADA

Terms and Conditions

Award Payable Only in Shares. Participant understands and agrees that the grant of the Option does not give him or her any right to receive a cash payment, and the Option may be settled only in newly-issued Shares.

Exercise Procedures; No Payment in Shares. Participant understands and agrees that he or she may not tender Shares that Participant owns to pay the Option Price in connection with the Option nor is Participant permitted to pay for any Tax Related-Items by the delivery of unencumbered Shares, or withholding in Shares otherwise issuable to me upon purchase.

Termination. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan and this Offering Document, subject to any applicable minimum requirements of employment standards legislation applicable to Participant in respect of Participant's relationship with the Company or any Designated Subsidiary (such legislation, as amended or replaced, "ESL"), Participant's employment will be deemed to cease on Participant's Termination Date. "Termination Date" means, regardless of whether the termination is lawful or unlawful, with or without cause or serious reason, and whether it is Participant or the Company or any Designated Subsidiary that initiates the termination, the later of (i) if and only to the extent required to comply with the minimum applicable requirements of ESL, the last day of any minimum statutory notice period applicable to Participant; and (ii) the date that is designated by the Company or Designated Subsidiary as the date on which Participant's employment is terminated, provided that in the case of termination of Participant's employment due to Participant's resignation, such date shall not be earlier than the date notice of resignation was given. Each of (i) and (ii) of the previous sentence will be determined without regard to any applicable period of reasonable notice, contractual notice, severance, or pay in lieu of notice that follows (or is in respect of a period which follows) Participant's Termination Date. For the avoidance of any doubt, the parties intend to displace any presumption that Participant is entitled to reasonable notice of termination under common law or civil law in connection with the Plan and this Offering Document.

Participant's eligibility to be granted an Option under the Plan and this Offering Document ceases as of Participant's Termination Date. Except if and as required to comply with applicable minimum requirements of ESL, Participant is not eligible to participate in the Plan during any period in which Participant receives, or claims to be entitled to receive, any compensatory payments or damages in lieu of notice of termination pursuant to contract, common law or civil law, and Participant shall not be entitled to any damages or other compensation in respect of the termination of any Option or Shares that are not issued due to termination of Participant's employment with the Company or any Designated Subsidiary as of the Termination Date. The Plan and this Offering Document displace any and all common law and civil law rights Participant may have or claim to have in respect of this Plan or under this Offering Document, including any right to damages. The foregoing shall apply, regardless of: (a) the duration of Participant's employment; (b) the reason for the termination of Participant's employment; (c) whether such termination is lawful or unlawful, with or without cause or serious reason; (d) whether it is Participant or the Company or any Designated Subsidiary that initiates the termination; and (e) any fundamental changes, over time, to the terms and conditions applicable to Participant's employment.

It is understood and agreed that all provisions of the Plan and this Offering Document are subject to all applicable minimum requirements of ESL. The Company and any Designated Subsidiary will comply with all applicable minimum requirements of ESL. Accordingly, to the extent that any applicable ESL minimum requirements apply, the Plan and the Offering Document shall: (a) not be interpreted as in any way waiving or contracting out of ESL; and (b) be interpreted to achieve compliance with ESL. In the event that ESL requires the Company or any Designated Subsidiary to provide Participant with a superior right or entitlement upon termination of Participant's employment or otherwise ("Statutory Entitlements") than provided for under the Plan or the Offering Document, then the Company or the Designated Subsidiary, as applicable, shall provide Participant with Participant's minimum Statutory Entitlements in substitution for Participant's rights under the Plan and the Offering Document. There shall be no presumption of strict interpretation against the Company or any Designated Subsidiary. Each of the Company and the Board, as applicable, will exercise their discretion under the Plan and the Offering Document in accordance with applicable legislation, including, where applicable, ESL. Where there is any reference in the Plan or this Offering Document to the termination of Participant's employment, the Company or the Designated Subsidiary, as applicable, will comply with the applicable minimum requirements of ESL in respect of such termination of employment including, without limitation, all ESL requirements in respect of notice, termination pay, severance pay, wages, benefits, vacation pay, reprisal prohibitions and reinstatement.

French Language Provisions. The following provisions will apply if Participant is a resident of Quebec:

Participant understands and irrevocably agrees that the essential terms and conditions of the Offering Document were negotiated and/or were negotiable and, thus, the Offering Document does not constitute a contract of adhesion. Further, Participant acknowledges and agrees that they: (i) requested to receive the Offering Document in the English language and that it is their express wish that the Offering Document be drawn up exclusively in the English language; (ii) accept the terms and conditions of the Offering Document as drafted in the English language; and (iii) expressly request and elect to receive all further documents and communications relating to the terms and conditions of the Offering Document in English, including but not limited to, Company announcements, policies, plans (including the Plan) and reference materials.

Le Bénéficiaire comprend et convient irrévocablement que les principales modalités et conditions de la Convention (« Offering Document ») ont été et/ou pouvaient être négociées et qu'en conséquence la Convention ne constitue pas un contrat d'adhésion. De plus, le Bénéficiaire reconnaît et convient qu'il ou elle: (i) a demandé de recevoir une version anglaise de la Convention et souhaite expressément qu'elle soit rédigée exclusivement en anglais; (ii) accepte les modalités et conditions de la Convention telles qu'elles ont été rédigées en anglais; et (iii) demande et choisit expressément de recevoir en anglais tous les documents et communications ultérieurs se rapportant aux modalités et conditions de la Convention, y compris, notamment, les annonces de la Société, les politiques, les régimes (incluant le Régime) et les documents de référence.

The Company, within thirty (30) days after receipt of Executive's submission of business expenses, will reimburse Executive for any and all reasonable and necessary business expenses incurred by Executive in connection with the performance of Executive's job duties prior to the Separation Date, which expenses shall be submitted to the Company with supporting receipts and/or documentation no later than ten (10) days after the Separation Date.

e. Benefits. Subject to Section 4(a)(ii) below and the terms and conditions of the applicable Employer benefit plans, the Executive's benefits will end on the later of (i) the Separation Date; and (ii) such other date required by the ESA.

4. Separation Benefits.

a. Separation Benefits. In the event the Separation Date occurs as a result of (i) the expiration of the Employment Period on July 15, 2027, or (ii) any earlier termination of Executive's employment for any reason other than a termination of Executive's employment by the Company for Cause (including, for the avoidance of doubt, Executive's resignation of his employment for any reason), subject to the Executive's execution of the Release (as defined and set out below) within the time period described in Section 4(b) below and Executive's continued compliance with Section 8, including Section 8(c) regarding the return of Company property, in addition to the Accrued Obligations, the Company agrees to provide Executive with the separation benefits set out below, which represent the severance benefits to which Executive would be entitled upon a Non-CIC Qualifying Termination (as defined in the Severance Plan) under the Severance Plan plus the additional severance in clauses (i)(A) and (iv) below (to the extent applicable) (the "Separation Benefits"). For the avoidance of any doubt: (x) the Executive will always receive the applicable minimum amounts and other entitlements required on termination of employment pursuant to the ESA, regardless of whether the Release is executed; and (y) the Separation Benefits are inclusive of all applicable minimum requirements under the ESA (including, without limitation, in respect of notice, termination pay and severance pay) and the terms of the Offer Letter. The Separation Benefits are as follows:

(i) Severance Payments. Executive shall be eligible for (A) if the termination date occurs prior to July 15, 2027, continued payment of Executive's Base Salary as described in Section 2(a) during the period commencing on such earlier termination date (such date being the Separation Date) through July 15, 2027 as if Executive remained employed through such date, payable in substantially equal installments over the period commencing on the Separation Date through July 15, 2027 in accordance with the Company's normal payroll practices, commencing on the first regularly scheduled payroll date on or following the Separation Date, plus (B) severance in the amount of CAD $346,250.00, payable in substantially equal installments over the six-month period commencing on the Separation Date, in accordance with the Company's normal payroll practices, commencing on the first regularly scheduled payroll date on or following the Separation Date. The first installment payment under each of clauses (A) and (B) shall include any portion of the payments under the applicable clause that would have otherwise been payable following the Separation Date and prior to such date of the first installment payment.

(ii) Enhanced Health and Dental Benefits. Subject to the terms and conditions of applicable plan terms, and to the extent permitted by the applicable plan providers, the Executive will be eligible to continue Executive's health and dental benefit coverage for the 12-month period following the Separation Date.

(iii) Equity Awards. With respect to the First Sign-On PSU Award, one-tenth ($1/10^{th}$) of the shares subject to such award shall become fully vested as of the date of execution of the Release and the remaining unvested shares (after giving effect to the foregoing acceleration) shall be immediately forfeited as of the later of the Separation Date or such other later time required by the ESA.

The Second Sign-On PSU Award shall remain outstanding for sixty (60) trading days following the Separation Date, and any portion of the Second Sign-On PSU Award that does not become vested during such period shall be immediately forfeited as of the sixty-first (61st) trading day following the Separation Date.

(iv) Waiver of Repayment of Sign-On Bonus. The Company will waive any right to repayment of the sign-on bonus paid to Executive pursuant to Section 3(a) of the Offer Letter.

b. Release. As a condition to Executive's receipt of any part or portion of the Separation Benefits that exceed Executive's minimum entitlements pursuant to the ESA, Executive shall execute a general release of all claims in favor of the Company (the "Release") in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A dated no earlier than the Separation Date and return an executed copy of the Release to the Company within three (3) days of the Separation Date. The Separation Benefits set forth above represent full satisfaction of the Company's severance obligations to Executive under the Severance Plan or otherwise.

c. Exclusive Remedy; No Mitigation. The Separation Benefits shall be the exclusive termination benefits to which Executive is entitled in excess of the applicable minimum amounts and entitlements of the ESA, unless Executive has breached the provisions of this Agreement, in which case Section 8(d) shall apply. Executive will not be required to mitigate the amount of any payment contemplated by this Agreement, nor will any earnings that Executive may receive from any other source reduce any such payment. The Employer may terminate the Executive's employment prior to July 15, 2027, for Cause, by complying with only the applicable minimum requirements of the ESA, including the Accrued Obligations, in respect of the termination of Executive's employment.

d. Definition of Cause. For purposes of this Agreement, "Cause" shall have the meaning given to such term in the Severance Plan.

5. Release of Known and Unknown Claims By Executive. The Executive agrees that the Executive has no claims against the Company, its affiliates or its parent entities (if any) of any kind, including but not limited to any claims or complaints in respect of the Executive's employment prior to the Effective Date, other than regular wages payable in the normal course, whether under common law, contract or statute, including the ESA and human rights legislation, and that, by signing below, the Executive fully and finally releases all such claims.

6. Additional Representations and Warranties By Executive. Executive represents and warrants that: (a) Executive has no pending complaints or charges against the Company Releasees (as defined in the Release), or any of them, with any provincial or federal court, or any provincial or federal agency, division, or department based on any event(s) occurring prior to the date Executive signs this Agreement; (b) Executive has not been subject to any retaliation or reprisal by the Company Releasees for his exercise of, or attempt to exercise, any statutory rights recognized under federal or provincial law, including the ESA; (c) except as provided in this Agreement, the Company Releasees have satisfied in full all obligations they ever had regarding leaves of absence and other time off of any kind (including, but not limited to, short-term disability leave, family medical leave, military leave, vacations, meal and rest periods, sick and personal days, and personal leave), and Executive has not suffered any reprisal or retaliation as a result of seeking or taking any such leave of absence or time off; and (d) Executive has no known workplace injuries or occupational diseases, has not sustained any disabling injury and/or occupational disease that has resulted in a loss of wage-earning capacity during Executive's employment, and has no personal injury and/or occupational disease that has been contributed to, or aggravated or accelerated in a significant manner by, Executive's employment.

7. Knowing and Voluntary. Executive represents and agrees that, prior to signing this Agreement, Executive has had the opportunity to discuss the terms of this Agreement with legal counsel of his choosing. Executive further represents and agrees that he is entering into this Agreement knowingly and voluntarily. Executive affirms that no promise was made to cause Executive to enter into this Agreement, other than what is promised in this Agreement. Executive further confirms that he has not relied upon any other statement or representation by anyone other than what is in this Agreement as a basis for his agreement.

8. Confirmation of Continuing Obligations.

a. Proprietary Information and Inventions. Executive hereby expressly reaffirms his obligations, to the extent any such obligations survive termination, under the Confidential Information and Invention Assignment Agreement between Executive and the Company (the "Proprietary Information Agreement"), a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit B and incorporated herein by reference.

b. Cooperation. Executive agrees that, following the Separation Date, upon reasonable notice (after taking into account, to the extent reasonably practicable, his other personal and business commitments) and without the necessity of the Company obtaining a subpoena or court order, he will provide reasonable cooperation to the Company in connection with any suit, action or proceeding (or any appeal from any suit, action or proceeding), or the decision to commence on behalf of the Company any suit, action or proceeding, any investigation and/or any defense of any claims asserted against the Company or any of the Company's current or former directors, officers, employees, partners, stockholders, agents or representatives of any of the foregoing, and any ongoing or future investigation or dispute or claim of any kind involving the Company that relates to events occurring during Executive's employment as to which he may have relevant information and any other matter for which he was responsible or had knowledge of through the Separation Date, other than matters in which Executive is an adverse party to the Company. Such cooperation may include, but will not be limited to, providing background information within his knowledge; aiding in the drafting of declarations; executing declarations or similar documents; testifying or otherwise appearing at investigation interviews, depositions, arbitrations or court hearings; and preparing for the above-described or similar activities. Upon the reasonable request of the Company, Executive agrees to cooperate with the transition of his job responsibilities following the Separation Date and cooperate in providing information on matters on which he was involved while an employee. Executive shall be reimbursed all out-of-pocket costs incurred as a result of such cooperation in accordance with the terms and conditions stated in the Company's reimbursement policies. All such cooperation shall be scheduled at mutually agreeable dates, times and locations.

c. Return of Property. On the Separation Date, Executive will return to the Company all lists, books and records of, or in connection with, the Company's business, and all other property belonging to the Company, including, without limitation, any and all devices, his Company-issued laptop, documents (hard copy or electronic files), data, notes, reports, proposals, lists, correspondence, specifications, drawings, blueprints, sketches, laboratory notebooks, materials, flow charts, equipment, other documents or property, or reproductions of any of the aforementioned items, it being distinctly understood that all such lists, books and records, and other documents and items, are the property of the Company. Executive further represents and warrants that he will not maintain any Company confidential information after the Separation Date. Executive's compliance with this Section 8(c) shall be a condition to his receipt of the Separation Benefits. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Executive may retain documents relating to his compensation and benefits from the Company.

d. Remedy in the Event of Breach. In addition to all other rights and remedies available to the Company under law or in equity, the Company shall be entitled to withhold all Separation Benefits from Executive in the event of his breach of this Section 8 prior to Executive's receipt of such Separation Benefits.

e. Definitions. For purposes of this Section 8, the term "Company" means not only Opendoor Operations Canada Inc., but also Parent as well as any company, partnership or entity which, directly or indirectly, controls, is controlled by or is under common control with Opendoor Operations Canada Inc., including Opendoor Labs Inc.

9. Acknowledgement. The Separation Benefits include all amounts to which Executive may be entitled under statute, common law and contract (including the Offer Letter), such as termination and severance pay; bonus, commission, incentive compensation and expenses; and any vacation pay which may accrue after the Separation Date. The Executive agrees that the arrangements with respect to the Separation Benefits fully satisfy the Company's and all affiliates' obligations to Executive in respect of the termination of Executive's employment and Executive will not be entitled to further notice of termination or severance pay under statute, common law or contract.

10. Entire Agreement; Modification. This Agreement, together with the Proprietary Information Agreement and the award agreements and equity plans governing Executive's equity awards, constitutes the entire agreement of the parties in respect of the subject matter contained herein and therein and supersedes all prior or simultaneous representations, discussions, negotiations and agreements, whether written or oral, including, without limitation, the Severance Plan and the Offer Letter (except as expressly provided herein, including in Sections 2(d) and 4(a)(iv)). This Agreement may be amended or modified only with the written consent of Executive and an authorized representative of the Company. No oral waiver, amendment or modification will be effective under any circumstances whatsoever.

11. Survival. The covenants, agreements, representations and warranties contained in or made in this Agreement shall survive the Separation Date or any termination of this Agreement.

12. Third-Party Beneficiaries. Except as expressly set forth herein, this Agreement does not create, and shall not be construed as creating, any rights enforceable by any person not a party to this Agreement.

13. Waiver. The failure of either party hereto at any time to enforce performance by the other party of any provision of this Agreement shall in no way affect such party's rights thereafter to enforce the same, nor shall the waiver by either party of any breach of any provision hereof be deemed to be a waiver by such party of any other breach of the same or any other provision hereof.

14. Notices. Any notice required or permitted by this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be delivered as follows with notice deemed given as indicated: (a) by personal delivery when delivered personally; (b) by overnight courier upon written verification of receipt; (c) by email, telecopy or facsimile transmission upon acknowledgment of receipt of electronic transmission; or (d) by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, upon verification of receipt. Notice shall be sent to Executive at the address listed on the Company's personnel records and to the Company at its principal place of business, or such other address as either party may specify in writing.

15. Severability. In the event any provision of this Agreement is found to be unenforceable by any court of competent jurisdiction, such provision shall be deemed modified to the extent necessary to allow enforceability of the provision as so limited, it being intended that the parties shall receive the benefit contemplated herein to the fullest extent permitted by law. If a deemed modification is not satisfactory in the judgment of such court, the unenforceable provision shall be deemed deleted, and the validity and enforceability of the remaining provisions shall not be affected thereby.

16. Governing Law. This Agreement will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Province of Ontario and the applicable federal laws of Canada, without regard to the conflicts of laws principles thereof.

17. Non-transferability of Interest. None of the rights of Executive to receive any form of compensation payable pursuant to this Agreement shall be assignable or transferable except through a testamentary disposition or by the laws of descent and distribution upon the death of Executive. Any attempted assignment, transfer, conveyance, or other disposition (other than as aforesaid) of any interest in the rights of Executive to receive any form of compensation to be made by the Company pursuant to this Agreement shall be void.

18. Gender. Where the context so requires, the use of the masculine gender shall include the feminine and/or neuter genders and the singular shall include the plural, and vice versa, and the word "person" shall include any corporation, firm, partnership or other form of association.

19. Counterparts; Facsimile or .pdf Signatures. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which when so executed and delivered will be deemed an original, and all of which together shall constitute one and the same agreement. This Agreement may be executed and delivered by facsimile or by .pdf file and upon such delivery the facsimile or .pdf signature will be deemed to have the same effect as if the original signature had been delivered to the other party.

20. Construction. The language in all parts of this Agreement shall in all cases be construed simply, according to its fair meaning, and not strictly for or against any of the parties hereto. Without limitation, there shall be no presumption against any party on the ground that such party was responsible for drafting this Agreement or any part thereof. The headings of the several sections in this Agreement are inserted solely for the convenience of the parties and are not a part of and are not intended to govern, limit or aid in the construction of any term or provision hereof.

21. Withholding and Other Deductions; Right to Seek Independent Advice. All compensation payable to Executive hereunder shall be subject to such deductions as the Company is from time to time required to make pursuant to law, governmental regulation or order. Executive acknowledges and agrees that neither the Company nor the Company's counsel has provided any legal or tax advice to Executive and that Executive is free to, and is hereby advised to, consult with a legal or tax advisor of his choosing.

1. Release of Known and Unknown Claims By Executive.

a. In exchange for the Separation Benefits payable to Executive pursuant to the Transition Agreement, and in consideration of the further agreements and promises set forth herein, Executive, on behalf of himself and his executors, heirs, administrators, representatives and assigns, hereby agrees to release and forever discharge the Company and all predecessors, successors and their respective parent corporations, affiliates, related, and/or subsidiary entities, and all of their past and present investors, directors, stockholders, officers, general or limited partners, employees, attorneys, agents and representatives, and the employee benefit plans (including plan sponsors, plan fiduciaries, and insurers) in which Executive is or has been a participant by virtue of his employment with or service to the Company (collectively, the "Company Releasees"), from any and all claims, debts, demands, accounts, judgments, rights, causes of action, equitable relief, damages, costs, charges, complaints, obligations, promises, agreements, controversies, suits, expenses, compensation, responsibility and liability of every kind and character whatsoever (including attorneys' fees and costs), whether in law or equity, known or unknown, asserted or unasserted, suspected or unsuspected, direct or derivative (collectively, "Claims"), which Executive has or may have had against such entities based on any events or circumstances arising or occurring on or prior to the date hereof, arising directly or indirectly out of, relating to, or in any other way involving in any manner whatsoever Executive's hiring, employment by or service to the Company or the termination thereof, Executive's ownership of Parent securities or otherwise, any benefits provided to Executive or which should have been provided to Executive during the employment or subsequent to the termination of Executive's employment, any statement, act, or omission made by or on behalf of any Company Releasees, and all past, present or future payments from any and all compensation or incentive programs of the Company, including without limitation claims in respect of the Executive's employment or the termination of such employment; any complaints of reprisal or retaliation; specific performance; damages; reinstatement; wages; notice of termination or pay in lieu of such notice; severance pay; perquisites; expenses; pension contributions; retirement savings account contributions; allowances; benefits; retirement benefits; arrangements in respect of equity in the Company, including options, share units and other share based awards; bonus; commission or other incentive compensation; interest; vacation pay;

Notwithstanding the generality of the foregoing, Executive does not release any claim which, by law, may not be released, including the following claims (the "Retained Claims"):

(i) Claims for indemnity under the bylaws of the Company or its affiliates, as provided for by applicable law or under any applicable insurance policy with respect to Executive's liability as an employee and officer of the Company or its affiliates;

(iii) Claims Executive may have to vested or earned compensation and benefits; and

b. Executive further understands that Executive will not be given any Separation Benefits in excess of the applicable minimum requirements under the ESA, unless Executive executes and returns an executed copy of this Release, in accordance with the requirements set out under the Transition Agreement.

c. Executive represents and warrants to the Company Releasees that there has been no assignment or other transfer of any interest in any Claim that Executive may have against the Company Releasees. Executive agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Company Releasees from any liability, claims, demands, damages, costs, expenses and attorneys' fees incurred as a result of any such assignment or transfer from Executive.

2. Additional Representations and Warranties By Executive. Executive represents and warrants that: (a) Executive has no pending complaints or charges against the Company Releasees, or any of them, with any provincial or federal court, or any provincial or federal agency, division, or department based on any event(s) occurring prior to the date Executive signs this Release; (b) except solely to the extent related to any Retained Claim, Executive will not in the future, file, participate in, instigate or assist in the prosecution of any claim, complaints, charges or in any lawsuit by any party in any provincial or federal court against the Company Releasees, or any of them unless such aid or assistance is ordered by a court or government agency or sought by compulsory legal process, claiming that the Company Releasees, or any of them, have violated any provincial or federal laws, statutes, ordinances or regulations based upon events occurring prior to his execution of this Release; (c) Executive has not been subject to any retaliation or reprisal by the Company Releasees for his exercise of, or attempt to exercise, any statutory rights recognized under federal, or provincial law; (d) the Company Releasees have satisfied in full all obligations they ever had regarding leaves of absence and other time off of any kind (including, but not limited to, short-term disability leave, family medical leave, military leave, vacations, meal and rest periods, sick and personal days, and personal leave), and Executive has not suffered any adverse employment action as a result of seeking or taking any such leave of absence or time off; (e) Executive has no known workplace injuries or occupational diseases, has not sustained any disabling injury and/or occupational disease that has resulted in a loss of wage-earning capacity during Executive's employment, and has no personal injury and/or occupational disease that has been contributed to, or aggravated or accelerated in a significant manner by, Executive's employment or separation from employment; and (f) the Separation Benefits represent complete satisfaction of any amounts owed to Executive as a result of his termination of employment under the Severance Plan or any other agreement between Executive and Parent, Employer or any affiliate thereof.

3. Continuing Obligations. Executive hereby expressly reaffirms his obligations under Section 8 of the Transition Agreement and the Proprietary Information Agreement, and agrees that such obligations shall survive the Separation Date. By signing below, Executive represents and warrants that Executive has returned to the Company all lists, books and records of, or in connection with, the Company's business, and all other property belonging to the Company, including, without limitation, any and all devices, his Company-issued laptop, documents (hard copy or electronic files), data, notes, reports, proposals, lists, correspondence, specifications, drawings, blueprints, sketches, laboratory notebooks, materials, flow charts, equipment, other documents or property, or reproductions of any of the aforementioned items, it being distinctly understood that all such lists, books and records, and other documents and items, are the property of the Company. Executive further represents and warrants that he has not copied or transferred, nor will he copy or transfer, any Company information, nor will he maintain any Company confidential information after the Separation Date. Executive's compliance with this Section 3 shall be a condition to his receipt of the Separation Benefits. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Executive may retain documents relating to his compensation and benefits from the Company.

4. No Assignment. Executive represents and warrants to the Company Releasees that there has been no assignment or other transfer of any interest in any Claim that Executive may have against the Company Releasees. Executive agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Company Releasees from any liability, claims, demands, damages, costs, expenses and attorneys' fees incurred as a result of any such assignment or transfer from Executive. The Company may assign this Release to any successor to all or substantially all of its business and/or assets or any affiliate.

5. Severability. In the event any provision of this Release is found to be unenforceable by any court of competent jurisdiction, such provision shall be deemed modified to the extent necessary to allow enforceability of the provision as so limited, it being intended that the parties shall receive the benefit contemplated herein to the fullest extent permitted by law. If a deemed modification is not satisfactory in the judgment of such court, the unenforceable provision shall be deemed deleted, and the validity and enforceability of the remaining provisions shall not be affected thereby.

6. Governing Law and Venue. This Release will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Province of Ontario and the applicable federal laws of Canada, without regard to the conflicts of laws principles thereof.

7. Amendments; Waivers. This Release may not be modified, amended, or terminated except by an instrument in writing signed by Executive and a duly authorized representative of the Company. By an instrument in writing similarly executed, Executive or a duly authorized officer of the Company, as applicable, may waive compliance by the other party with any specifically identified provision of this Release that such other party was or is obligated to comply with or perform; provided, however, that such waiver shall not operate as a waiver of, or estoppel with respect to, any other or subsequent failure. No failure to exercise and no delay in exercising any right, remedy, or power hereunder shall preclude any other or further exercise of any other right, remedy, or power provided herein or by law or in equity.

8. Entire Agreement; Modification. This Release, together with the Proprietary Information Agreement, the Transition Agreement and the award agreements and equity plans governing Executive's equity awards, constitutes the entire agreement of the parties in respect of the subject matter contained herein and therein and supersedes all prior or simultaneous representations, discussions, negotiations and agreements, whether written or oral, including, without limitation, the Severance Plan and the Offer Letter (except as expressly provided for in the Transition Agreement). This Release may be amended or modified only with the written consent of Executive and an authorized representative of the Company. No oral waiver, amendment or modification will be effective under any circumstances whatsoever.

9. Knowing and Voluntary. Executive further represents and agrees that he is entering into this Release knowingly and voluntarily. Executive affirms that no promise was made to cause Executive to enter into this Release, other than what is promised in this Release. Executive further confirms that he has not relied upon any other statement or representation by anyone other than what is in this Release as a basis for his agreement.

10. Counterparts; Facsimile or .pdf Signatures. This Release may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which when so executed and delivered will be deemed an original, and all of which together shall constitute one and the same agreement. This Release may be executed and delivered by facsimile or by .pdf file and upon such delivery the facsimile or .pdf signature will be deemed to have the same effect as if the original signature had been delivered to the other party.
